GOP, Demos Ask Delay In Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic and Republican leaders today called on the railroads to delay imposition of new work rules so that Congress can act on legislation to avoid a nationwide strike.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, made the plea 36 hours before the early Thursday deadline for putting into effect the rules which the unions have said would bring an immediate walkout.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois urged that Mansfield's plea be heeded.

Mansfield said in a Senate speech that he was sure Congress would pass a bill promptly. He had told newsmen before the Senate convened, however, that he did not think the Senate could pass the measure today.

This raised a possibility that the bill could not become law by the deadline. House leaders have said they would not take up the legislation until the Senate acted.

Pending in the Senate is a bill to require binding arbitration of the major issues in the dispute.

Mansfield said that in view of the fact Congress is now struggling with the problem, "the national responsibilities of both carriers and unions are clear and it is incumbent upon both to accept them.

"The Senate and the House will legislate as fairly and as promptly as possible. But the Senate will not legislate under pressure."

Dirksen said that experience had shown that any attempt to ram through a bill under intense pressure led to faulty legislation.

Through the morning, both railroad management and the unions had been going ahead with planning on the basis that a shutdown was to be expected early Thursday.

The railroads announced an embargo on acceptance of freight effective at 12:01 a.m. Thursday. A spokesman said individual railroads would decline to accept freight at earlier times.

A union spokesman said that a strike headquarters would be set up at Cleveland, Ohio. He said this would be for all five unions.

Trees Chopped On School Land

By LOREN MacARTHUR

Workers for Lang Construction Co. of San Francisco recently crossed the fence separating Richardson Bay School from the Ebbtide apartments off Sacramento Street in Sausalito and chopped down 29 trees on school property, Sausalito School District trustees were told last night.

"This was done without the knowledge of the school," Supt. Marcus F. Davis reported to the board.

The 29 eucalptus trees, he said, were whacked down four feet above the ground because they blocked the view of Ebbtide apartment residents.

The board voted unanimously to take legal action against the contractor to determine why the trees were cut down and to collect damages.

"The owner has not responded at all," Davis said. "Everytime I call he's out or busy."

Allison Hana of Sausalito, vice president of Lang Construction Co., said today: "I know nothing about that. I've been out of town."

Other company officials were reported on vacation by their receptionist.

The board again planted itself firmly for trees when the topic of a "large, magnificent pine tree with a lot of sentimental value" was brought up by Davis.

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. is barking up the wrong tree, trustees agreed, in suggesting that the pine, growing in the Bayside School yard, be topped to make way for a new 12,000 volt power line, which was installed yesterday to replace a 4,000 volt line.

"Children climb that tree constantly," Davis said. "It (the line) is definitely dangerous. PG&E has indicated it may be able to raise the line or else it must chop down the tree."

"The tree was there first," said Dr. Stanley J. Wolfe, trustee. "We should insist PG&E remove the wire."

Trustees agreed unanimously.

Support Given To Study On Industries

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker today finished off the job he started last week by gaining support of his associates for a county contribution insuring a $30,000 study of industries suited to Marin County, together with means of luring them here.

The actual county contribution will be up to $12,500 which the supervisors voted to set aside in a special account, drawing on the unappropriated reserve.

Leydecker reviewed his statement last Tuesday as to the desirability of having the job done by the Stanford Research Institute, and a pledge by the Draper companies to underwrite half the cost or $15,000.

Tentative further private pledges have been obtained for $2,000 and $500, Leydecker said. This leaves $12,500 to be put up by the county.

A three-man committee to "guide and direct" next actions, will be headed by Leydecker. Others are County Administrator Alan Bruce and Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchell.

Belvedere Tax Rate Increased By 11 Cents

At a special meeting last night the Belvedere City Council set the tax rate at $2.46 per $100 assessed valuation, an 11 cent boost over last year's rate.

The council reported that the city will have to raise $186,600 by property taxes.

Kennedy Back Trouble Again

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's ailing back was described today as "bothering him a little" again although his general health is considered fine.

"This is a normal thing with backs like the president's," Press secretary Pierre Salinger said. "They have their ups and downs."

Salinger made his statement at a news briefing after a reporter said Kennedy appeared to have been limping slightly. The reporter asked if there had been a recurrence of the president's lingering back problem.

Burke Tells Senate To Reject Test Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retired Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, former chief of naval operations, recommended today the Senate reject the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

"I believe it may be ratified but if it is we will regret it," the former top naval officer said after three hours of closed-door testimony before the Senate Armed Services subcommittee.

He told newsmen outside that he recommended that the Senate reject the treaty although this had not been included in a 54-page statement made available earlier.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), who presided, said "Adm. Burke came out flatfootedly against the treaty."

And Burke confirmed this a moment later.

In his prepared testimony, Burke urged senators to demand some system of verification or limited inspection of Soviet nuclear facilities before ratifying the treaty, to prevent cheating by the Russians.

Dr. George B. Kistiakowsky, who was White House science adviser to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, testified he endorsed the treaty without "the slightest reservation."

Eisenhower urged yesterday that the Senate attach a reservation to its approval of the treaty. He said this country should specifically reserve the right to use nuclear weapons to halt any aggression involving its vital interests.

Udall Water Plan To Get State Study

SACRAMENTO (AP)—William E. Warne, state director of water resources, today created a special task force to review U.S. Interior Secretary Stewart Udall's 1.9-billion-dollar Pacific Southwest water program.

Warne said the department of water resources will withhold comment until the task force has studied Udall's plan and it has been discussed by the California Water Commission and local agencies and officials.

"I feel that Secretary Udall has raised the problem to its proper level in proposing a regional project as the solution," Warne said. "The Colorado River is now inadequate to the needs of the region it serves."

The task force will be headed by Wesley Steiner, Warne's planning cordinator.

California must comment on the program within 90 days.

Among Udall's proposals for a regional plan to solve the area's water problems was a recommendation for enlarging the California Water Project aqueduct to deliver more water to Southern California.

Vandals Wreck Parked Truck

Vandals wrecked a panel truck parked at a construction site at Lucas Valley and Miller Creek Roads in Marinwood, Deputy Sheriff T. A. Lightfoot reported yesterday.

The truck belonged to Bowman Electric Co., which has a panel truck stationed at the site of a firehouse construction there. Joe Bowman said the headlights, all windows, and both rear view mirrors had been broken, and dirt poured into the gasoline tank.

He estimated damage at $100.

Mexican Worker Measure Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Agriculture Committee approved today a bill to extend the program of importing Mexican farm workers for one year.

That revives the measure in the House. Earlier this year the House killed a bill that would have extended the program two years.

The one-year extension was supported by the Kennedy administration.

Kentfield Arson Fire, Vandalism

A wave of arson fires and vandalism in vacant houses in Kentfield was reported today by the Kentfield Fire Department, which is seeking juveniles believed responsible.

The disclosure came after firemen put out a fire in a vacant house at 1035 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard after Chief John McLeran saw smoke coming from the house at 4:08 p.m. yesterday while en route home.

The fire in the dining room floor was put out after slight damage but firemen found 14 or 15 other places in the same house where fires had been started and then had smouldered out.

The house is one of several recently purchased by the College of Marin for expansion. Later yesterday a college watchman discovered water from the water heater in a vacant house at 1033 Sir Francis Drake had been allowed to flood the basement.

The fire department said small fires had been started in other vacant houses in the area in recent weeks but had smouldered out before anyone could see and report them to firemen.

Fires also have been started but apparently had smouldered out in the old Marine barracks on the college campus, formerly used for classes, and a total of four buildings in the area have been broken into and vandalized in the past two weeks, McLeran said.

Entry to the house where the fire was set yesterday was by breaking the locks on windows, firemen said.

Driver Dies In 'Worst' Traffic Jam

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — A driver was killed today in a truck crash which caused one of the worst traffic jams in Peninsula history.

Jack J. Burchill, 57, of San Carlos, was trapped in the cab of his huge Delta Lines truck and trailer rig.

Rescuers worked 25 minutes to free him but he died shortly after his arrival at Sequoia Hospital.

The crash occurred between the Marsh Road and Harbor Road turnoffs in Redwood City. The Delta van jackknifed across three northbound lanes.

It struck a truck loaded with sacks of fine blasting sand. Many sacks burst and sent drifts of sand along the highway.

Northbound traffic was backed up on Bayshore Highway all the way to San Jose, and southbound traffic back as far as San Mateo. The parallel El Camino Real also was jammed.

WHERE THERE IS SMOKE— THERE'S FIRE

The Novato Fire Department got a call at 7:15 last night that there was smoke pouring out of the North Marin Veterinary Hospital at 1819 Novato Boulevard. It was a neighbor calling who said it smelled like animals burning.

The firemen rushed to the scene. It was true.

Dr. George McDaniel, the veterinarian, was barbecuing a chicken in his yard.

Blaze Guts Newly Wed Couple's Home

A fast moving fire gutted the lower floor of a duplex at 59 Alexander Street, Sausalito, at 5 p.m. yesterday and destroyed the entire possessions of a newly married couple who moved into it Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Seymour, the young couple, and Frank Green, who occupied the upper floor, were all at work at the time of the fire. Sausalito firemen said the cause was unknown.

The fire gutted three rooms downstairs, which contained the Seymour's clothes and wedding presents. The couple spent the night with Seymour's mother, Mrs. Florence Seymour of 90 Harrison Avenue, Sausalito.

The duplex is owned by Ted H. Borla of 35 Platt Avenue, Sausalito. No estimate of damage was made by firemen.

The fire went up the walls to the attic, where firemen controlled it. Damage to the second floor was chiefly from water.

The heat was too much for Deputy Dist. Atty. Thomas T. Storer at the county courthouse yesterday. He was rushed to San Rafael General Hospital after gasping for breath and collapsing on the job at 4:30 p.m. Some feared he had suffered a heart attack, but his doctor said today that Storer was suffering from the heat and fatigue. He was ordered to rest at home today.

Officer Frank Webb said the girl, pedaling east on Calle De La Mesa ran into the northbound car of Katheryn Padrick Wilson, 45, of 420 Country Club Drive.

Rescued After 14 Days

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — Joking and singing all the way, Henry Throne and David Fellin were lifted to the surface today unharmed in a safety harness from more than 300 feet underground where a mine cave-in trapped them 14 days ago.

The rescue climaxed a drama that caught worldwide attention; a drama mixed with faith, courage, frustrations and the heart-warming stream of good humor that flowed constantly from Throne and Fellin.

CONCERN FOR BOVA

But the joy was tempered with concern for the third trapped miner, Louis Bova, 42, who was last heard from a week ago today. He was separated from them by 25 feet of debris, and four efforts to drill a small lifeline hole to him — like the one which reached Throne and Fellin—have been unsuccessful.

Throne, 28, started up at 1:50 a. m. and reached the surface at 2:07 a. m., a 17-minute trip he described as "the best ride I ever had." Fellin, 58, started at 2:33 a. m. and reached the surface at 2:41. His rescue took 8 minutes and 15 seconds.

Although grimy, both men appeared in good shape when they reached the surface.

TO HOSPITAL

The men were examined in a first aid tent, then quickly removed by two helicopters to the Hazleton State Hospital nine miles away, where a special ward was prepared for them.

Throne and Fellin were pronounced in excellent shape by physicians who examined them after their 14-day ordeal.

Dr Peter Saras, who examined Throne, and Dr. Anthony Fidulla, personal physician to Fellin for the past 10 years, said they were both amazed that the miners survived in cramped quarters in such excellent shape.

Ira Mills, state commissioner of hospitals who had arranged a news conference, said he was told by Fellin and Throne that they managed to keep warm in their 9-by-14 cubicle where temperatures dropped to about 50 degrees by breathing

But the joy was tempered with concern for the third trapped miner, Louis Bova, 42, who was last heard from a week ago today. He was separated from them by 25 feet of debris, and four efforts to drill a small lifeline hole to him — like the one which reached Throne and Fellin—have been unsuccessful.

Throne, 28, started up at 1:50 a. m. and reached the surface at 2:07 a. m., a 17-minute trip he described as "the best ride I ever had." Fellin, 58, started at 2:33 a. m. and reached the surface at 2:41. His rescue took 8 minutes and 15 seconds.

Although grimy, both men appeared in good shape when they reached the surface.

TO HOSPITAL

The men were examined in a first aid tent, then quickly removed by two helicopters to the Hazleton State Hospital nine miles away, where a special ward was prepared for them.

Throne and Fellin were pronounced in excellent shape by physicians who examined them after their 14-day ordeal.

Dr Peter Saras, who examined Throne, and Dr. Anthony Fidulla, personal physician to Fellin for the past 10 years, said they were both amazed that the miners survived in cramped quarters in such excellent shape.

Ira Mills, state commissioner of hospitals who had arranged a news conference, said he was told by Fellin and Throne that they managed to keep warm in their 9-by-14 cubicle where temperatures dropped to about 50 degrees by breathing

Engle Serious After Brain Surgery

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.), underwent brain surgery Saturday and is in serious condition today, an aide said.

Engle

The 53-year-old Engle was reported suffering from a "congenital condition" of the brain.

Charles Bosley, Engle's aide, said the brain condition was affecting the circulation in Engle's right arm and leg.

He entered Doctors Hospital Thursday. On Saturday an operation was performed to remove "a small amount of tissue" from the brain.

"The operation was to all appearances successful," Bosley said.

JFK Pardons Ex-U.S. Marshal

SAN MATEO (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has pardoned a former United States marshal who had been fined $5,000 and sentenced to five years in prison for attempted extortion.

Edward J. Carrigan, now 62, was convicted with two other men in 1951. He served two years in prison and was released in 1954. The pardon removes from the record a $5,000 fine which Carrigan never paid.

Since his prison release Carrigan has operated a television repair service in San Mateo.

Carrigan was appointed marshal by then President Harry Truman in 1950. Prior to that, he had been acting postmaster of San Mateo and head of the San Mateo central labor council and county Democratic Party central committee.

Lost 4-Year-Id Boy Found Dead

FRESNO (UPI)—Four-year-old Donald Roger Griffin of Buena Park, was found dead late yesterday lying in the limbs of a freshly fallen pine tree to end a four day high Sierra search.

Chief investigator A. L. Collins theorized the boy died Sunday night. He said searchers had gone along the much-traveled Potter Pass trail a half mile from where the body was found and called Donald's name without response earlier.

Climbing Trip Ends In Scout's Death

SIERRA CITY (AP) — A climbing trip in the Sierra Buttes, three miles north of here, ended in death Sunday for a 14-year-old Boy Scout when he fell almost 600 feet down the face of a sheer cliff.

Acting Coroner C. William Robbins said the victim, David Stead of Yuba City, apparently fell backwards from the face of the cliff after he became separated from his scoutmaster, Joseph F. Jackson of Sierra City, and another 14-year-old Scout, Douglas Jones of Yuba City.

N. Korea Accused

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The United Nations command accused Communist North Korea today of violating the Korean War armistice agreement 259 times between May 1 and Aug. 20.

The Communists countered with a list of 907 alleged violations by U.N. personnel between July 11 and Aug. 15, plus four last week.

Charges were traded at the 260th meeting of the armistice commission.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) —Eight Latin American envoys have demanded that Haiti guarantee safety of 44 refugees granted asylum in their embassies here.

New Attack On Insect Pests May Be Germs

By JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—If you can't lick 'em with poisons — and you can't—try germs and viruses.

That was one of many suggestions made at the 16th International Congress of Zoology by scientists participating in a symposium on "Nature, Man, and Pesticides."

The so-called newer pesticides, including DDT, have enormously increased the world's food supply by reducing the populations of insects which attack man's crops. DDT has saved millions of lives by eradicating malaria in many parts of the globe.

But these poisons also have inflicted considerable damage on creatures it wasn't specifically aimed at. In some countries they have taken a considerable toll of human life.

In any event, insect pests develop resistance to them, and if you depended on nothing else, you would have to go on indefinitely increasing the dose, with incalcuable evil side effects.

So scientists are turning to other methods of insect control for use, at lease, as supplementary weapons in the never-ending war against harmful insects.

Find the germs and viruses which make insect pests sick and spread them around. Luckily, none of these so-called pathogens appear to hurt human beings.

This kind of attack is being made on some pests. Bacillus thuringiensis, for example, is being employed in biological warfare against imported cabbage worm, the alfalfa caterpillar, and the tobacco horn worm and bud worm.

Milky spore disease is widely used against Japanese beetles. And a whole batch of viruses are being cultured to fight the gypsy moth, the corn earworm, and the like.

Certain viruses attack only a single kind of insect. In five or 10 years home gardeners may be spraying their leafy vegetables with viruses instead of poisons.

JFK Won't Meet Press

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy will not hold a news conference this week. He last met with newsmen on Aug. 20.

Rail Tieup Might Trap Marchers In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders continued to pledge calm and dignity for their massive civil rights march on Washington tomorrow. But apprehension still hung in the air—about transportation, about the uncertainty of numbers, about an unexpected spark of violence.

The railroad unions have set a nationwide strike for midnight tomorrow night if new work rules go into effect then. It is a strike that could leave thousands of weary demonstrators stranded and milling in Washington.

Congress was set today to continue its try at legislation that would prevent the strike.

The uncertainty about numbers was accented early today when a spokesman for the march headquarters, Sy Posner, reported that about 2,000 of the persons around the country who had planned to join in the demonstration were having financial difficulties and would not be able to come to the capital.

Posner said the Southern Christian Leadership Conference led by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. had sent about $2,000 to its headquarters in Atlanta to help cover the transportation costs of 200 marchers from Albany, Ga., and 100 from Savannah, Ga.

Police, meanwhile, prepared to cope with the massive crowds, but they still were not sure just how many people, trains, planes, buses and cars would stream into the city for the march.

But police were sure the crowds would be big. Estimates range from 100,000 to 250,000. With crowds of this size come the potential for trouble.

A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Sleeping Car Porters and the director of the march, told the National Press Club Monday. "We have taken the utmost precaution to see that violence will not occur."

But, he added, "I will not stand here and tell you I know there will be no violence. Human beings are fallible."

Lodge Confers With Nhu As Soldiers Told To Shoot Into Any Illegal Gathering

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge met with South Viet Nam's security boss today after the government, fearing further uprisings, ordered soldiers to shoot into any illegal gathering.

Lodge conferred with Ngo Dinh Nhu, head of the secret police and brother of President Ngo Dinh Diem, for more than two hours. They met at Nhu's request.

Lodge presented his credentials to Diem yesterday and conferred twice with the president. He carried a note from President Kennedy spelling out U.S. views of the Vietnamese crisis.

Lodge arrived in Saigon Thursday and replaced Frederick E. Nolting, who resigned as ambassador.

Brig. Gen. Ton That Dinh, Saigon's military governor, moved swiftly to prevent mass uprisings. He ordered security forces to shoot into "any group of troublemakers who violate the state of martial law" imposed last Wednesday. Government spokesmen said the military was acting under orders from Diem.

Clearly referring to the arrest of 3,000 university students as they gathered Sunday for a demonstration, Gen. Dinh asked parents to advise their children "not to indulge in any illegal action which may bring about disastrous consequences."

He also banned labor strikes and appealed to the capital's 2 million people "to remain calm and clear sighted."

University of Saigon faculty branches in the city were sealed off by South Vietnamese troops. Antiaircraft batteries remained around the presidential palace and at key points in Saigon, apparently to guard against any possible air force revolt.

In Washington, the State Department said Vietnamese military leaders had no warning of the anti-Buddhist crackdown Wednesday that touched off the new crisis.

Russ Hit Peking On Racist Policies

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union accused Communist China today of advocating racist policies aimed at dividing the world on the basis of color.

An article in the official Communist Party newspaper Pravda said the Peking regime's approach on racial questions is "rather in accord with the spirit of the time" of the 13th - century Mongol despot Genghis Khan.

The article, written by Commentator Nepomnyaschi of the official Novosti news agency, was the latest Soviet attack on Peking in the deepening Sino-Soviet quarrel over ideological and political differences. The Soviet press has been full of such attacks in recent years.

The communist Chinese have expressed support for the Negro cause in the United States and have sought to identify the American Negro's struggle for equal rights with the international Communist movement.

Long is assistant agency director for science and technology.

U.S. Living Costs Soar To New Peak In July

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Living costs soared to a new peak in July because of sharp price increases for pork and fresh vegetables, the Labor Department reported today.

The department's consumer price index hit a record high per cent over the previous of 107.1, up five tenths of 1 month.

This means it took $10.71 in July to buy the same goods and services that cost $10 in the base period 1957-59.

The rise triggered cost-of-living pay increases of from one to three cents an hour for 1,025,000 workers in the auto, aerospace, farm and construction equipment and trucking industries.

A Labor Department price expert said the July increase was the largest for any month since last September.

Arnold Chase, asistant commissioner of labor statistics, said he expected prices to be "reasonably stable" during the rest of 1963. He foresaw no major increases.

Sonoma Leader Hits Kent On Bodega Stand

Roger Kent, the chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic State Central Committee, has been taken to task by a Sonoma County leader of the party for placing the central committee on record with the Federal Atomic Energy Commission as opposing the nuclear power plant which the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. proposes to build at Bodega Bay.

Paul Golis, a member of the Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee and Gov. Edmund G. Brown's campaign manager in that county last year, said today that he thinks "Roger Kent, more than anyone else, is responsible for making this a political issue."

"He decided that the executive committee should delegate a special committee to study the problem, and appointed himself chairman of the committee. He then made his statement without ever consulting anyone from Sonoma County," where the plant would be located.

Golis is the secretary of the Sonoma County Assn. for the Development of Bodega Bay, the directors of which, he says, "include 12 of the 24 members of the Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee. This organization favors the building of the plant.

Kent is on vacation until Friday and could not be reached for comment.

Personnel Board Hearing Set For Former Vehicles Aide

A State Personnel Board hearing has been set Sept. 30 for Lester Hingsbergen, 32 Dellwood Court, San Rafael, on charges of insubordination as an investigator for the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Attorney John Brennan, an associate of Thomas E. Feeney of San Francisco, who is handling the case for Hingsbergen, said today that his client never refused to answer questions at a Los Angeles hearing. Hingsbergen was fired June 27 after the hearing.

Brennan said that Hingsbergen merely refused to talk after he was denied the right to have a tape recording or transcript made of the questioning session.

Two other charges have been filed by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk against the former assistant chief investigator of the DMV. One states Hingsbergen forced subordinates and four auto dealers to buy raffle tickets, and the other that he ordered an investigator to transport plants and produce to the home of Morris Genser, also an assistant chief investigator, on state time in a state car.

Brennan said these charges were too vague to be answered directly.

Genser was recently indicted by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury on several charges including bribery, extortion and grand theft stemming from his work there.

A. J. Veglia, registrar of vehicles, was fired last week by the state, and according to the attorney general, will be charged with inviting both Hingsbergen and Genser to his home just before Veglia was to sit on an oral examination board for their promotion to the posts they held before they were released.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson have donated Abraham Lincoln's first appointment book to the White House.

Integration Is Requested In Sausalito

A request for a balanced number of Negro and white students in all schools and classrooms in the Sausalito School District was presented to the district board of trustees last night by the Marin Congress of Racial Equality.

Trustees set a special meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 4 to discuss the request.

"We ask the board to make a statement that it agrees with a policy of complete integration," said Douglas Quiett of Marin City, president of CORE. "We also ask that parents of minority groups be allowed to transfer their children now to another school if they wish."

"It would be a physical impossibility to move children before school starts," said Harold L. Sleight, trustee. "We've hardly got the dust settled from the last move."

The district this fall is moving fourth grade Negro students living in Marin City to Manzanita School, which is almost completely Negro. Last year the fourth graders attended Bayside School, which is chiefly Caucasian.

"I wouldn't like to see us turn everything into a turmoil," said George R. Kowski, board president. "I don't mean a stall. I'm wondering if jumping without a great deal of thought is wise.

"It is my feeling that this district is to be complemented on its integration policy," he added. His statement drew laughter from the 40 member audience.

Trustee Stanley J. Wolfe, who hopes the board will take a lead in integration, questioned spending $500,000 to rebuild Manzanita School in Marin City. The Marin County Housing Authority has approved allocating $173,000 toward the school provided the district supplies $300,000. Supt. Marcus F. Davis said a bond issue would probably be necessary to raise the district's share.

"Who says we need a new school out there now or ever?" said Wolfe. "We have no plan for the future of that school. We can't push a bond issue for something we may never need."

The board set a discussion at its next regular meeting Sept. 10 with housing authority officials to discuss the new school.

Trustees also voted unanimously to approve the annexation of a yet-unbuilt subdivision in Tennessee Valley to the district.

Board members agreed to request a meeting with members of the Mill Valley school district board to discuss the annexation. The board indicated informal approval had been given the annexation by the Mill Valley district.

Eight students from Tennessee Valley attend Bayside and Central.

"Does this mean the new students from Tennessee Valley will attend Manzanita?" asked John Gardenhire, CORE member. "The district doesn't really have a neighborhood school policy since those students have been bussed right by Marin City."

"The students would attend Manzanita," said Wolfe. "The district favors this annexation because it would help Manzanita."

Won't Confirm, Deny Stabbing

SANTA CLARA (UPI)—Cupertino housewife Joan Northcutt neither confirms nor denies that she stabbed her wealthy husband to death, according to sheriff's officers.

However, the booking on the 28-year-old beauty at Santa Clara County jail remains "suspicion of murder."

An autopsy disclosed that her husband Richard, 33 Santa Clara businessman, died of a single knife thrust in the lower abdomen Sunday night.

An ornate 10-inch carving knife found by sheriff's deputies on the kitchen drainboard had been freshly washed, according to Lt. Leon Talesfore.

Ludy To Represent Marin On REA Board

Marin Supervisor George Ludy of Inverness was unanimously chosen today by his colleagues to represent Marin County for the coming year on the executive board of the Redwood Empire Assn.

A letter to the board from Jack Craemer as president of the association called attention to its bylaws requiring representation by a supervisor from each county belonging to the group, and asked for a decision notified to an organizational session now in progress at Ukiah.

Sixty farm workers in the San Joaquin Valley have been reported ill after contact with parathion, an organic phosphate poison sprayed on trees which causes twitching muscles, extreme pallor, diarrhea, cramps and vomiting in its human victims.

Bolinas Man Is Sued For $2 Million

A Bolinas man has been sued for two million dollars damages by a Los Angeles firm which charges fraud in the proposed sale of the 2,500-acre Lake Ranch north of Bolinas.

The sale fell through in 1960 and the land has since been sold for 1.7 million dollars to lumberman A. W. Sweet of Sixes, Ore.

William D. Ryan, J. Pierce Gannon and Walter L. Forward Jr., partners of the Security Land Co., filed the suit yesterday in San Francisco Superior Court against William S. Tevis Jr. of Bolinas. The suit asks one million dollare general and one million dollars punitive damages.

The three men claimed that Tevis, and his agent, R. Pardow Hooper of San Francisco, didn't bother to mention that the U. S. Government was considering buying the land for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Security Land Co. was going to buy the land for the same price Sweet paid, but lost their $5,000 option when the sale was not completed by the option date. The company claimed it could not resell the land before the payment was due because its value dropped when the seashore project became known.

Sweet became owner of the land Jon. 28 this year, according to the Marin County Recorder's office.

Graham Calls For Religious 'Fad'

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Evangelist Billy Graham last night called on the youth of Southern California to start a "new fad" of religious devotion.

"This could bring about a youth revolution which is needed desperately in our country," Graham told 42,108 persons attending the 10th meeting of his current crusade, which ends Sept. 8.

"As a group of young revolutionaries, you could turn your world upside down," he said. "You could play a part in the history of our times."

Quarry Apartments Plan Again Denied

A third application to build more than 300 apartments in the old quarry site of Corte Madera west of Highway 101 was denied 2-0 last night by the town board of design.

On motion of board member William Gilbert the board held that so much parking would be needed that "proper landscaping would be impossible."

Gilbert and member Peter Lenz also objected to the design of the 335 apartments as "monotonous."

The plans for 384 units including the towers were rejected by the planning commission June 6. A second set of plans, for buildings ranging up to eight stories, was denied by the commission July 8.

Last night's plans, by architects Faradg Gilan-Farr and D. Hugh Coleman for Kaehler-Farrar Development Inc. will now go to the planning commission. Its next meeting is not yet set.

Meanwhile the town council in Sept. 16 will hold a public hearing on a planning commission recommendation to rezone the quarry area from apartment duplex — barring all apartments.

The board of design last night approved plans for a branch of Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. on Paradise Drive near the Corte Madera interchange and plans for an office building on Casa Buena Drive at Conow Street.

Board member Harold B. Wagstaff was absent.

Contractor Sued For $245,000

Developers of a Novato subdivision filed a $245,000 lawsuit in Marin Superior Court today against the contractor who did the grading and put in improvements.

Marvin E. Lange of Oakland is suing Prodanovich Inc., also of Oakland, for work done on a 92-lot subdivision on 35 acres at the end of Rowland Boulevard in Novato. Sunland Builders Inc. is now building homes in the subdivision, known as Rolling Hills Estates of Marin.

Lange says Prodanovich agreed to grade the land and install drains and pavements for $166,500. Lange charged that the work was unsatisfactory, and he suffered $145,000 damage as a result.

On Aug. 16, Prodanovich filed a claim of lien, alleging that Lange owed the company $65,863 for work on the subdivision.

This claim of lien was filed "maliciously to slander title to the property," Lange contends. He seeks an additional $100,000 as punitive damages from Prodanovich.

Sonoma Leader Hits Kent On Bodega Stand

Roger Kent, the chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic State Central Committee, has been taken to task by a Sonoma County leader of the party for placing the central committee on record with the Federal Atomic Energy Commission as opposing the nuclear power plant which the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. proposes to build at Bodega Bay.

Paul Golis, a member of the Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee and Gov. Edmund G. Brown's campaign manager in that county last year, said today that he thinks "Roger Kent, more than anyone else, is responsible for making this a political issue."

"He decided that the executive committee should delegate a special committee to study the problem, and appointed himself chairman of the committee. He then made his statement without ever consulting anyone from Sonoma County," where the plant would be located.

Golis is the secretary of the Sonoma County Assn. for the Development of Bodega Bay, the directors of which, he says, "include 12 of the 24 members of the Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee. This organization favors the building of the plant.

Kent is on vacation until Friday and could not be reached for comment.

Personnel Board Hearing Set For Former Vehicles Aide

A State Personnel Board hearing has been set Sept. 30 for Lester Hingsbergen, 32 Dellwood Court, San Rafael, on charges of insubordination as an investigator for the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Attorney John Brennan, an associate of Thomas E. Feeney of San Francisco, who is handling the case for Hingsbergen, said today that his client never refused to answer questions at a Los Angeles hearing. Hingsbergen was fired June 27 after the hearing.

Brennan said that Hingsbergen merely refused to talk after he was denied the right to have a tape recording or transcript made of the questioning session.

Two other charges have been filed by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk against the former assistant chief investigator of the DMV. One states Hingsbergen forced subordinates and four auto dealers to buy raffle tickets, and the other that he ordered an investigator to transport plants and produce to the home of Morris Genser, also an assistant chief investigator, on state time in a state car.

Brennan said these charges were too vague to be answered directly.

Genser was recently indicted by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury on several charges including bribery, extortion and grand theft stemming from his work there.

A. J. Veglia, registrar of vehicles, was fired last week by the state, and according to the attorney general, will be charged with inviting both Hingsbergen and Genser to his home just before Veglia was to sit on an oral examination board for their promotion to the posts they held before they were released.

Integration Is Requested In Sausalito

A request for a balanced number of Negro and white students in all schools and classrooms in the Sausalito School District was presented to the district board of trustees last night by the Marin Congress of Racial Equality.

Trustees set a special meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 4 to discuss the request.

"We ask the board to make a statement that it agrees with a policy of complete integration," said Douglas Quiett of Marin City, president of CORE. "We also ask that parents of minority groups be allowed to transfer their children now to another school if they wish."

"It would be a physical impossibility to move children before school starts," said Harold L. Sleight, trustee. "We've hardly got the dust settled from the last move."

The district this fall is moving fourth grade Negro students living in Marin City to Manzanita School, which is almost completely Negro. Last year the fourth graders attended Bayside School, which is chiefly Caucasian.

"I wouldn't like to see us turn everything into a turmoil," said George R. Kowski, board president. "I don't mean a stall. I'm wondering if jumping without a great deal of thought is wise.

"It is my feeling that this district is to be complemented on its integration policy," he added. His statement drew laughter from the 40 member audience.

Trustee Stanley J. Wolfe, who hopes the board will take a lead in integration, questioned spending $500,000 to rebuild Manzanita School in Marin City. The Marin County Housing Authority has approved allocating $173,000 toward the school provided the district supplies $300,000. Supt. Marcus F. Davis said a bond issue would probably be necessary to raise the district's share.

"Who says we need a new school out there now or ever?" said Wolfe. "We have no plan for the future of that school. We can't push a bond issue for something we may never need."

The board set a discussion at its next regular meeting Sept. 10 with housing authority officials to discuss the new school.

Trustees also voted unanimously to approve the annexation of a yet-unbuilt subdivision in Tennessee Valley to the district.

Board members agreed to request a meeting with members of the Mill Valley school district board to discuss the annexation. The board indicated informal approval had been given the annexation by the Mill Valley district.

Eight students from Tennessee Valley attend Bayside and Central.

"Does this mean the new students from Tennessee Valley will attend Manzanita?" asked John Gardenhire, CORE member. "The district doesn't really have a neighborhood school policy since those students have been bussed right by Marin City."

"The students would attend Manzanita," said Wolfe. "The district favors this annexation because it would help Manzanita."

Won't Confirm, Deny Stabbing

SANTA CLARA (UPI)—Cupertino housewife Joan Northcutt neither confirms nor denies that she stabbed her wealthy husband to death, according to sheriff's officers.

However, the booking on the 28-year-old beauty at Santa Clara County jail remains "suspicion of murder."

An autopsy disclosed that her husband Richard, 33 Santa Clara businessman, died of a single knife thrust in the lower abdomen Sunday night.

An ornate 10-inch carving knife found by sheriff's deputies on the kitchen drainboard had been freshly washed, according to Lt. Leon Talesfore.

Ludy To Represent Marin On REA Board

Marin Supervisor George Ludy of Inverness was unanimously chosen today by his colleagues to represent Marin County for the coming year on the executive board of the Redwood Empire Assn.

A letter to the board from Jack Craemer as president of the association called attention to its bylaws requiring representation by a supervisor from each county belonging to the group, and asked for a decision notified to an organizational session now in progress at Ukiah.

Poisoned Orchards Might Be Closed

BERKELEY (AP) — Dr. Malcom H. Merrill, state director of public health, says that peach orchards in which workers have been stricken with pesticide poisoning may be closed down unless the danger is removed.

Sixty farm workers in the San Joaquin Valley have been reported ill after contact with parathion, an organic phosphate poison sprayed on trees which causes twitching muscles, extreme pallor, diarrhea, cramps and vomiting in its human victims.

Bolinas Man Is Sued For $2 Million

A Bolinas man has been sued for two million dollars damages by a Los Angeles firm which charges fraud in the proposed sale of the 2,500-acre Lake Ranch north of Bolinas.

The sale fell through in 1960 and the land has since been sold for 1.7 million dollars to lumberman A. W. Sweet of Sixes, Ore.

William D. Ryan, J. Pierce Gannon and Walter L. Forward Jr., partners of the Security Land Co., filed the suit yesterday in San Francisco Superior Court against William S. Tevis Jr. of Bolinas. The suit asks one million dollare general and one million dollars punitive damages.

The three men claimed that Tevis, and his agent, R. Pardow Hooper of San Francisco, didn't bother to mention that the U. S. Government was considering buying the land for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Security Land Co. was going to buy the land for the same price Sweet paid, but lost their $5,000 option when the sale was not completed by the option date. The company claimed it could not resell the land before the payment was due because its value dropped when the seashore project became known.

Sweet became owner of the land Jon. 28 this year, according to the Marin County Recorder's office.

Quarry Apartments Plan Again Denied

A third application to build more than 300 apartments in the old quarry site of Corte Madera west of Highway 101 was denied 2-0 last night by the town board of design.

On motion of board member William Gilbert the board held that so much parking would be needed that "proper landscaping would be impossible."

Gilbert and member Peter Lenz also objected to the design of the 335 apartments as "monotonous."

The plans for 384 units including the towers were rejected by the planning commission June 6. A second set of plans, for buildings ranging up to eight stories, was denied by the commission July 8.

Last night's plans, by architects Faradg Gilan-Farr and D. Hugh Coleman for Kaehler-Farrar Development Inc. will now go to the planning commission. Its next meeting is not yet set.

Meanwhile the town council in Sept. 16 will hold a public hearing on a planning commission recommendation to rezone the quarry area from apartment duplex — barring all apartments.

The board of design last night approved plans for a branch of Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. on Paradise Drive near the Corte Madera interchange and plans for an office building on Casa Buena Drive at Conow Street.

Board member Harold B. Wagstaff was absent.

Contractor Sued For $245,000

Developers of a Novato subdivision filed a $245,000 lawsuit in Marin Superior Court today against the contractor who did the grading and put in improvements.

Marvin E. Lange of Oakland is suing Prodanovich Inc., also of Oakland, for work done on a 92-lot subdivision on 35 acres at the end of Rowland Boulevard in Novato. Sunland Builders Inc. is now building homes in the subdivision, known as Rolling Hills Estates of Marin.

Lange says Prodanovich agreed to grade the land and install drains and pavements for $166,500. Lange charged that the work was unsatisfactory, and he suffered $145,000 damage as a result.

On Aug. 16, Prodanovich filed a claim of lien, alleging that Lange owed the company $65,863 for work on the subdivision.

This claim of lien was filed "maliciously to slander title to the property," Lange contends. He seeks an additional $100,000 as punitive damages from Prodanovich.

ANXIOUS WAIT — Mrs. Henry Throne and Mrs. David Fellin watch anxiously as the rescue drill bores ever closer to their trapped husbands, more than 300 feet beneath the surface. The men were pulled to safety last night after being entombed two weeks. (UPI Photo)

Rescue Of Trapped Miners Was Ticklish Drilling Job

Last 7 Inches Took Almost Hour To Cut

HAZELTON, Pa. (AP) — "I don't know of any comparable feat. Mike can peel an orange with that thing. But the last six inches nearly drove me out of my mind."

Speaking was Nelson Stauffer, who had charge of drilling operations for the rescue of two trapped miners.

Mike is Mike Rank, 39, of Bethel, Conn., who operated the giant drilling rig for the final hours of completing the escape hole for David Fellin, 58, and Henry Throne, 28, last night.

So ticklish was the work that near the end observers could count the revolutions and figure to inches just how far Rank had bored in an hour. And this with an 18-inch bit on the end of more than 300 feet of steel tubing while operating a 65-ton machine that can cut a 48-inch hole through solid rock.

The last seven inches took almost an hour.

"I just felt the last few minutes I would go out of my mind," said Fellin's wife, Anna.

"It didn't bother me a bit until I was through—then I got a little shaky," said Rank. "I think I'm about as pleased as anybody."

Rank also was at the controls when the escape hole was first opened on Friday. Both times he faced the possibility that a wrong move could send tons of coal crashing down on Fellin and Throne.

At 3:15 p.m. yesterday, Fellin said he would pull the plug at the bottom of the escape hole. At 3:17 he said it was too tight to be pulled out — and Rank's nerveless drilling resumed.

He stopped the drill every few minutes. At 5:30 p.m., men in the communications tent estimated six inches to go.

Rank resumed drilling at 5:37.

Then—dramtically — rescuers heard Fellin shout: "Take it up! Take it up!"

The time was 6:23 — Rank's drill had completed the escape hole.

Rank, a solidly built six-footer, is employed by the Gill Drilling Equipment Co., of North Branford, Conn. He was on a service call in nearby Carbondale when his boss asked him to stop by the cave-in.

After the initial breakthrough Friday, he went home to keep a doctor's appointment then came back because "I had to be there."

"This time was five times worse than the first," he said. "You have to be more careful —there are a lot of things involved."

Gordon Smith, deputy state secretary of mines, turned to Rank after Fellin's dramatic "take it up, take it up" cry.

"Take it up, take it all the way up, Mike," said Smith. "You did a good job, Mike."

MINER, WIFE REUNITED

David Fellin is reunited with his wife in the hospital early today after he was pulled up more than 300 feet from the mine shaft where he and two other miners were trapped two weeks ago. This tearful reunion took place after Fellin was flown to the Hazelton hospital from the mine site. (AP Wirephoto)

PATIENTS DOING WELL IN HOSPITAL

Doctors Say Both In Surprisingly Good Condition Considering Ordeal

HAZELTON, Pa. (UPI) — If Henry Throne "was not confined two weeks in a mine I would not have him as a patient in a hospital," Dr. Peter Saras said today. Dr. Anthony Fedulla said David Fellin "looks as good as new to me."

After two weeks in a dark and cold cubicle in the earth, the two miners had been put on stretchers, wheeled to waiting helicopters, and flown to the Hazleotn State General Hospital.

Both men had minor complaints and both will remain at the hospital for several days. But the pair endured their ordeal with remarkable hardiness, according to their physicians.

One of the first requests made by Throne, 28, was for a "cheeseburger with all the trimmings," and he was observed later sitting upright in bed and sipping a bottle of beer.

Both men were reunited with their wives. Anna Fellin "wept for joy," according to Dr. Fedulla.

Fellin, according to Dr. Fedulla, will remain in the hospital about a week. The physician reported the miner's blood pressure normal, but said he had a slightly fast heart beat. A "slight tingling" in Fellin's feet was attributed to cold temperatures underground and his inability to move freely.

Dr. Fedulla, Fellin's physician for 10 days, said his patient was "happy and glad to be back on earth" and showed no signs of anxiety. He traced Fellin's durability to the fact that the miner was a "spiritual man with a firm belief in God."

Dr. Saras said Throne would remain in the hospital at least 48 hours, and maybe more. Throne also complained of tingling in the feet, and had slight lacerations on the right hand.

Drilling For Third Miner Continuing

HAZELTON, Pa. (AP) — Drilling of a 17½-inch escape hole for Louis Bova similar to the one used to free Henry Throne and David Fellin began today less than five hours after Throne and Fellin were lifted to the surface unharmed in a safety harness.

The drilling began with only a handful of men on the scene at 6:45 a.m. amidst optimism by Bova's relatives and Throne and Fellin that Bova is alive after 14 days underground without food.

Shortly thereafter workers began drilling a four-inch lifeline hole toward where Bova, 42, is believed trapped more than 300 feet underground.

By 9 a.m., the big drill had penetrated more than 66 feet while the smaller one had reached a depth of 20 feet.

Four previous attempts at establishing a lifeline hole, similar to the one through which contact was first made with Fellin and Throne on Aug. 18 and through which food was lowered them, have failed.

All three miners were trapped in a cave-in Aug. 13 but Bova was separated from Throne and Fellin by a wall of debris and was believed about 25 feet away from them, reportedly injured. He has not been heard from since last Tuesday when Fellin reported he made contact with him.

Fellin, 58, and Throne, 28, while being examined by doctors, said they could not believe that Bova was dead. They said he probably still lay trapped under a pile of rubble and that the search should continue.

Fellin suggested that a hole should be drilled about six feet east of the lifeline hole through which contact was first made with them. The drilling began promptly.

Bova's wife was not at the rescue site when Fellin and Throne were pulled to the surface. A relative said she had been under great strain and had been taken to a hospital last night.

on each other's backs and massaging each other's legs.

Contact was not made with Fellin and Throne until almost six days after the cave-in. Then shortly before midnight on Aug. 18 a six - inch lifeline hope reached them. Food and other supplies were dropped to them through this hole.

Fidulla said Fellin, a Roman Catholic, "is a spiritual man and he Fellin thinks it was a prime factor in coming through."

Fidulla said Fellin told him that "after the first seven days he was confident he could come out safe. He said he prayed."

Fellin was given a hamburger, soup and coffee while Throne had a hamburger with all the trimmings, two bottles of beer and a stogie.

The wives of both men were waiting for them at the hospital.

Mrs. Fellin, a Roman Catholic, made the sign of the cross, prayed and wept tears of joy when she received the news that the rescue had been accomplished.

At the hospital the men were first helped into tubs to wash off the accumulation of grime. Shortly before 4 a. m. Fellin wondered when he could see his wife.

At 4:08 a. m. just five hours short of two weeks after her husband had disappeared in the mine, Mrs. Fellin was reunited with him.

She moved into the room, threw her arms around him and wept on his shoulder.

"Don't cry," said the miner as bouyant as ever. "I'm all right. I'm all right."

The safety harness, pulled by a winch and cable arrangement, had been considered only for an emergency but it worked smoothly. Charmbury and other officials changed original plans to use a steel capsule because of a bend in the 18-inch escape hole which caused fears that the capsule might catch. When Charmbury announced the harness would be used, he asked his listeners to say a prayer for the men.

"I'm coming up"! yelled Throne as the harness ropes snapped taught about him. "I'm coming up!"

"Boy what a ride this is," said Throne half-way up.

At one point, when he was stopped because a tangle developed in his communication line and a rope, he remarked that ride feels "like a chutey-chute at Coney Island."

Near the top he asked, "What kind of a moon is out?"

When told there was no moon he quipped: "No moon?" Holy mackerel there, Andy."

When Throne, wearing an orange helmet and blue coveralls laced with the lifting strap, hit the surface, the crowd broke into a tumultuous shout.

"He's up! He's up!

There was applause, cheers and whistles when Throne was rushed past the crowd to a waiting helicopter. He was wrapped in a blanket and appeared exhausted.

Throne reported he had plenty of room coming up the shaft, so much that he was bouncing around and hitting the sides of the rescue hole.

"Keep on going! Keep on going!" Fellin shouted as he came up. "This is the best ride I ever had."

At one point he sang a few bars from "She'll Be coming Around the Mountain." Then he asked those on the surface: "Do you want another song?" He was told to wait until he reached the surface.

"She's doing nicely," he said. "Keep coming. It's working like a clock. Happy New Year. Everything's okay! A beautiful ride."

Fellin also was cheered as he reached the surface.

ANXIOUS WAIT — Mrs. Henry Throne and Mrs. David Fellin watch anxiously as the rescue drill bores ever closer to their trapped husbands, more than 300 feet beneath the surface. The men were pulled to safety last night after being entombed two weeks. (UPI Photo)

Rescue Of Trapped Miners Was Ticklish Drilling Job

Last 7 Inches Took Almost Hour To Cut

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — "I don't know of any comparable feat. Mike can peel an orange with that thing. But the last six inches nearly drove me out of my mind."

Speaking was Nelson Stauffer, who had charge of drilling operations for the rescue of two trapped miners.

Mike is Mike Rank, 39, of Bethel, Conn., who operated the giant drilling rig for the final hours of completing the escape hole for David Fellin, 58, and Henry Throne, 28, last night.

So ticklish was the work that near the end observers could count the revolutions and figure to inches just how far Rank had bored in an hour. And this with an 18-inch bit on the end of more than 300 feet of steel tubing while operating a 65-ton machine that can cut a 48-inch hole through solid rock.

The last seven inches took almost an hour.

"I just felt the last few minutes I would go out of my mind," said Fellin's wife, Anna.

"It didn't bother me a bit until I was through—then I got a little shaky," said Rank. "I think I'm about as pleased as anybody."

Rank also was at the controls when the escape hole was first opened on Friday. Both times he faced the possibility that a wrong move could send tons of coal crashing down on Fellin and Throne.

At 3:15 p.m. yesterday, Fellin said he would pull the plug at the bottom of the escape hole. At 3:17 he said it was too tight to be pulled out — and Rank's nerveless drilling resumed.

STUDENTS REACH SPAIN FROM CUBA

Member Of Group Says People Never Lived Worse Than Now

MADRID (UPI) — One of the American students who went to Castro's Cuba despite a State Department ban shraved off his Castro-type beard here today and said, "The people of Cuba never lived worse than they do now."

Clinton M. Jenks, a 20-year-old resident of Monroe, La., who was born in San Francisco, said:

"I don't know how they lived before in Cuba. But I am sure the people of Cuba never lived worse than they do now. They (the Castro government) told us the people were better off now but I don't believe it."

Jenks and his wife Clara were among 54 Americans who arrived here yesterday on an Iberia Airlines flight from Havana on their way back to the United States. They were scheduled to leave here Thursday for New York.

Following instructions from the leader of the tour group, Levi Laub of New York City, Jenks at first refused to tell his impressions of Communist Cuba.

"We're not making any statements until we get to New York," Jenks said. But he admitted on further questioning he was disillusioned and did not believe everything the Castro officials told the group while they were in Cuba.

The original group that went to Cuba included 59 Americans. But one died accidentally while there — Hector Warren Hill, 29, of Brooklyn, N.Y. Three more remained in Cuba and one—Barry Hoffman, 26, of Brookline, Mass. — flew to New York yesterday from Bermuda, where he had stopped over. The Boston Herald said today Hoffman was a U.S. counterspy.

(Among the group is Carol B. Esteves, 20, daughter of Roger Esteves of 15 Lincoln Avenue, San Anselmo. Esteves said today that he has heard nothing from his daughter recently but expects her to return soon.)

New U.C. Campus Funds Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The spending of 5.74 million dollars to start work on the new University of California campus at Santa Cruz has been authorized by the State Public Works Board.

The board yesterday approved, among other items, 3.35 million dollars for a physical sciences building, 1.005 million dollars for academic areas and dining facilities, and $659,900 for a central services building.

The money was authorized by the 1963 Legislature's special session after Gov. Edmund G. Brown cut it from the general session's skeleton budget.

The board also approved 3.29 million dollars for a physical education building addition to Long Beach State College, and 2.37 million dollars for a classroom building at San Jose State.

Three In Hub Crash Reported 'Improving'

Three persons, injured in the San Anselmo crash that killed Frances S. Hastings of San Francisco Sunday, were reported "improving" at Marin General Hospital today.

Mrs. Caroline Lilienthal Esberg, 82, of 51 Glenwood Road, Ross, driver of the car was reported in "fair" condition. She suffered a broken nose, a broken jaw and cuts and bruises.

Russell P. Hastings, 78, the victim's husband, who suffered a knee injury, was reported in "good" condition.

Nora Yunge, 52, Mrs. Esberg's housekeeper, who suffered multiple cuts and scrapes, also was reported in "good" condition.

The crash occurred at Red Hill Avenue and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard after the car's accelerator apparently stuck.

Private family services were held yesterday for Mrs. Hastings at the Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo. Inurnment was at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Mrs. Hastings was a former member of the national board of Camp Fire Girls and a society matron in San Francisco.

Rickey's Rancho Rafael At Ignacio Is Purchased

The sale of Rickey's Rancho Rafael at Ignacio has been announced by John H. Rickey of Palo Alto.

The motel and restaurant were purchased by Max Key of San Francisco in a transaction involving all of the operating business and more than five acres of property owned by the Androwe Properties. The purchase price of business and land was listed as approximately one million dollars.

Rickey took over the Rancho Rafael six years ago on a lease-purchase agreement from the George T. Thompson Hotels and the Anderson and Rowe estate and made a number of changes and improvements in the property. At that time he owned Rickey's Studio Inn in Palo Alto and several other restaurants in the Bay Area. The Studio Inn has since been sold to the Hyatt House Corp.

Key, who said that his previous business was real estate investments, stated that he will continue to operate the restaurant, bar and 70 motel units as the Rancho Rafael under the same Rickey policy and make further improvements. He will act as manager.

Jack Randolph, recent manager under the Rickey interests, is being transferred to Rick's Chalet in Palo Alto.

San Jose Sees Huge Annexation

SAN JOSE (AP) — Booming San Jose is on its way to becoming the third largest city in area in California.

City Mgr. A. P. Hamann said today he will advise the city council tonight of plans to annex 16,000 acres in four parcels on the southeast. These include one tract of 10,700 acres, largest in the city's annexation history.

Previously the biggest tract was 7,000 in proceedings filed Aug. 13.

The planned annexations would boost San Jose from 73 square miles to 109. Only Los Angeles and San Diego are larger.

Rickey's Rancho Rafael At Ignacio Is Purchased

The sale of Rickey's Rancho Rafael at Ignacio has been announced by John H. Rickey of Palo Alto.

The motel and restaurant were purchased by Max Key of San Francisco in a transaction involving all of the operating business and more than five acres of property owned by the Androwe Properties. The purchase price of business and land was listed as approximately one million dollars.

Rickey took over the Rancho Rafael six years ago on a lease-purchase agreement from the George T. Thompson Hotels and the Anderson and Rowe estate and made a number of changes and improvements in the property. At that time he owned Rickey's Studio Inn in Palo Alto and several other restaurants in the Bay Area. The Studio Inn has since been sold to the Hyatt House Corp.

Key, who said that his previous business was real estate investments, stated that he will continue to operate the restaurant, bar and 70 motel units as the Rancho Rafael under the same Rickey policy and make further improvements. He will act as manager.

Jack Randolph, recent manager under the Rickey interests, is being transferred to Rick's Chalet in Palo Alto.

San Jose Sees Huge Annexation

SAN JOSE (AP) — Booming San Jose is on its way to becoming the third largest city in area in California.

City Mgr. A. P. Hamann said today he will advise the city council tonight of plans to annex 16,000 acres in four parcels on the southeast. These include one tract of 10,700 acres, largest in the city's annexation history.

Previously the biggest tract was 7,000 in proceedings filed Aug. 13.

The planned annexations would boost San Jose from 73 square miles to 109. Only Los Angeles and San Diego are larger.

Equality Notion Called 'Partner' Of Prejudice

CHICAGO (UPI) — A leading Methodist bishop told the denomination's second conference on human relations last night that the notion of equality is the "silent partner" of prejudice.

Bishop F. Egerla Ensley, president of the church's national board of Christian social concerns, urged about 1,000 ministers and laymen to disregard the "mathematical category" of equality and attempt instead to "sense" the needs of the American Negro.

"I don't think we of the white race understand the burden of spirit which our Negro brethren carry," he said.

Bishop Ensley delivered the keynote address to the five-day Methodist conference which is seeking ways to integrate white and Negro units of the church and is drawing guidelines for racially connected community problems.

Bishop Ensley said there is a "new Negro" and a "new conscience in the world." Both must be met, he said, by "crawling under your neighbor's skin and experiencing the world as he does."

Equality is a "mathematical category (which) does not truly apply to human qualities," Bishop Ensley said. "I sometimes wish we could superannuate this notion of equality, for it is the silent partner of so much of our prejudice."

Mississippi Goes To Polls Today

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — An estimated 445,000 Mississippi Democrats go to the polls today to choose between Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson and former Governor J. P. Coleman for governor.

Conflicting victory claims added to the confusion of last minute charges and countercharges, pleas for votes and reports of possible Negro voteins to write a hectic finish to a torrid race based largely on racial matters.

The Kennedy administration and its civil rights program and the University of Mississippi desegregation crisis last fall provided most of the election fodder. Both candidates pledged opposition to the Kennedys and efforts to preserve segregation.

State Building Permits Up 22.3% Over Last Year

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California construction permits have gone up 22.3 per cent over the record set in the first six months of 1962, the State Department of Finance has reported.

Finance Director Hale Champion said yesterday the new record included construction permits for nearly 2.6 billion dollars worth of private building.

The value of residential construction permits accounted for 1.74 billion dollars, up 28.9 per cent for the first six months of the year. Champion said this indicated a total of 150,300 new dwelling units would be built, 28 per cent more than the 117,062 authorized during the same period of 1962.

TV, Radio Thefts Placed At $2,500

Burglars jimmied their way into the Village TV Sales and Repair store in Sausalito last weekend and carried off 21 speakers worth $2,500 and $108 from the cash register.

Sausalito Police Chief Howard W. Goerndt declined to give any information on the burglary until a police investigation was completed yesterday afternoon.

The burglary was discovered at 8:12 a. m. yesterday when Ellis Murphy, the owner, opened the store, located at 60 Humboldt Street. It had been closed for the weekend at 6 p. m. Saturday.

The burglar or burglars apparently smashed in a window in the rear of the store, cutting themselves in the process and leaving blood on the sill. When they were unable to climb through the window, they used a jimmy to pry open the rear door.

Ten television sets, seven radios, two loud speakers and one record changer were lifted from display stands in the shop and carried to a waiting truck.

"A great deal of force was used to pry open that door," said police Sgt. David Cooper. "The store was well barred, and it was difficult to enter. We have no suspects now, but we found evidence which we've sent to the Department of Justice criminal laboratory in Sacramento for analysis."

Sausalito Trustees Approve Plan For Tutoring Students

An unusual tutoring plan for slow students was given final approval by the Sausalito School District board of trustees last night when it approved use of schools in the district this fall for the night program.

The purpose of the "study halls," which will be held twice weekly from 7:30 to 9 p. m., is to "help shift attitudes toward study," Supt. Marcus F. Davis told the board.

Each group of four or five students will work with a tutor in a specific subject. The tutors will be volunteer teachers and retired teachers, Davis said. Students from the sixth through tenth grades will attend voluntarily at the recommendation of their teachers.

The board approved use of the Richardson Bay School library and a classroom.

Planners Reject Ordinance Change For Church School

St. Stephen's Still Plans To Start Classes Sept. 12

By CORENA GREEN

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night unanimously voted against amending the zoning ordinance to permit St. Stephen's Episcopal parish to open a parochial day school in a residential zone. The recommendation will be forwarded to the city council.

Despite this, the school still plans to open Sept. 12 at Whitaker Hall, according to Rev. L. A. White, the rector.

The commission had been asked by the city council to study the zoning ordinance with a view toward adding the words "private schools" to the list of buildings permitted in residential zones provided a use permit is issued.

After recommending against this, the commission considered a suggestion by James Michael, attorney for the school, that the word church in the ordinance be defined to include school. This was also unanimously voted down.

This suggestion had previously been voted down by the council. Councilman E. G. Weed, who attended the meeting, said the reason the council took the action was to give the planning commission a chance to study the other recommendation.

In making its decision, the commission felt that the words "private schools" were much too embracing and the way could be opened for the establishment of any kind of an institution which charges tuition.

A letter from attorney Nathan D. Rowley, who served on the planning commission during the drafting of the zoning ordinance was read. The letter said that the planners considered a church a "place of worship" only. (Michael had argued that a school is a historical function of the church and should automatically be included.)

Rowley's letter also contended that no private schools were contemplated as far as the commission knew. The only exception was the Belvedere Nursery School, operating in a commercial zone. (Michael had produced affidavits from city officials stating they were aware that St. Stephen's planned to open a parochial school.)

In coming to their decision, the commissioners made the following statements:

Chairman George V. Banning: "I have looked at other cities and the views of professional planners. Allowing schools in a residential zone applies to cities which are developing. I think Belvedere is different. I don't believe the church building is adequate, nor is the access, nor the street layout. This would constitute spot zoning, which is poor planning practice."

Berton C. Jacobson: "Those desiring the school should have raised their objection when the ordinance was being drafted. There were numerous hearings then."

Leslie W. Graham: The identity of the church and school is not proved. If we allow this, we'll be opening a Pandora's box. The old Moffit mansion was at one time a school."

Frederick Jandrey: If the existing school facilities were not adequate and there were no space for additional facilities, I would change my mind. I believe both conditions are being met."

Thomas E. Scanton: "I can't recommend changing the ordinance in view of the history of the zoning ordinance. If the slate were clean and there were no ordinance I would think twice."

An overflow audience jammed the community hall for the hearing.

Redwood Gardens Plan Is Gaining In Novato

The tentative map of Redwood Gardens subdivision of six acres east of Railroad Avenue and north of Cerro Vista, was approved last night by the Novato City Planning Commission.

Gus Ravetz asked for the subdivision on six of 10 acres he originally planned for a mobile home park. He abandoned this plan after the State Division of Highways picked a freeway route which will take four of the 10 acres.

The change of name from San Jose Boulevard to Ignacio Boulevard for the new realigned portion of the street was recommended by the commission.

The commission continued until Sept. 11, a request by Harry Heifetz for consideration of the Scottsdale Master Plan for 80 acres between Highway 101 and South Novato Boulevard, south of Yukon Way; John Novak's request to abandon Prospect Road; and a hearing for a zone change for the Indian Valley Medical Group from limited agriculture to professional, for one acre on Hill Avenue adjacent to the Novato Hospital.

A request by Novak to rezone from single family to light industrial and general commercial, 45 acres between the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and Highway 101 north of Novato Creek, was continued to Sept. 23.

Tito, Khrushchev Pleased By Talks

Yugoslav and Soviet spokesmen described the meetings on Tito's offshore Brioni Island retreat as "going well" in a "good and friendly atmosphere."

They declined to disclose what Tito and Khrushchev were talking about. But it was learned reliably that the world Communist movement, including Peking's attack against them both, the general international situation, including disarmament, and bilateral relations, including closer economic relations, headed the agenda.

2 Die In Crash In Highway Chase

EVANSTON, Wyo. (UPI)—Two 17-year-old California youths were killed when their car crashed into the bank of a stream as they were attempting to outrun a pursuing Highway Patrol car.

The victims were identified as Michael Andrew Peterson and Henry H. Harr Jr., both of Pleasant Hill.

State Highway Patrol Sgt. Leonard A. Wold said the youths were in a car which matched the description of an automobile reported stolen so he attempted to halt the occupants for questioning.

A new tonneau cover, worth $43, was taken off a car parked in the used car lot of E. F. Sweeney British Cars, 439 Francisco Boulevard, over the weekend, manager Jaap Suyerhoud reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Four Marin County members of the 4-H Club took special awards in the sewing category at the California State Fair. They were Marcy Eisenhauer, Novato Aggies; Maureen Heyman, Novato Jets; Peggy Commings, Novato Miwok, and Patty Miller, Ross Valley Club.

These members will take part in a special 4-H fashion parade Friday in the Women's Building at the State Fair.

TV, Radio Thefts Placed At $2,500

Burglars jimmied their way into the Village TV Sales and Repair store in Sausalito last weekend and carried off 21 speakers worth $2,500 and $108 from the cash register.

Sausalito Police Chief Howard W. Goerndt declined to give any information on the burglary until a police investigation was completed yesterday afternoon.

The burglary was discovered at 8:12 a. m. yesterday when Ellis Murphy, the owner, opened the store, located at 60 Humboldt Street. It had been closed for the weekend at 6 p. m. Saturday.

The burglar or burglars apparently smashed in a window in the rear of the store, cutting themselves in the process and leaving blood on the sill. When they were unable to climb through the window, they used a jimmy to pry open the rear door.

Ten television sets, seven radios, two loud speakers and one record changer were lifted from display stands in the shop and carried to a waiting truck.

"A great deal of force was used to pry open that door," said police Sgt. David Cooper. "The store was well barred, and it was difficult to enter. We have no suspects now, but we found evidence which we've sent to the Department of Justice criminal laboratory in Sacramento for analysis."

Sausalito Trustees Approve Plan For Tutoring Students

An unusual tutoring plan for slow students was given final approval by the Sausalito School District board of trustees last night when it approved use of schools in the district this fall for the night program.

The purpose of the "study halls," which will be held twice weekly from 7:30 to 9 p. m., is to "help shift attitudes toward study," Supt. Marcus F. Davis told the board.

Each group of four or five students will work with a tutor in a specific subject. The tutors will be volunteer teachers and retired teachers, Davis said. Students from the sixth through tenth grades will attend voluntarily at the recommendation of their teachers.

The board approved use of the Richardson Bay School library and a classroom.

Planners Reject Ordinance Change For Church School

St. Stephen's Still Plans To Start Classes Sept. 12

By CORENA GREEN

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night unanimously voted against amending the zoning ordinance to permit St. Stephen's Episcopal parish to open a parochial day school in a residential zone. The recommendation will be forwarded to the city council.

Despite this, the school still plans to open Sept. 12 at Whitaker Hall, according to Rev. L. A. White, the rector.

The commission had been asked by the city council to study the zoning ordinance with a view toward adding the words "private schools" to the list of buildings permitted in residential zones provided a use permit is issued.

After recommending against this, the commission considered a suggestion by James Michael, attorney for the school, that the word church in the ordinance be defined to include school. This was also unanimously voted down.

This suggestion had previously been voted down by the council. Councilman E. G. Weed, who attended the meeting, said the reason the council took the action was to give the planning commission a chance to study the other recommendation.

In making its decision, the commission felt that the words "private schools" were much too embracing and the way could be opened for the establishment of any kind of an institution which charges tuition.

A letter from attorney Nathan D. Rowley, who served on the planning commission during the drafting of the zoning ordinance was read. The letter said that the planners considered a church a "place of worship" only. (Michael had argued that a school is a historical function of the church and should automatically be included.)

Rowley's letter also contended that no private schools were contemplated as far as the commission knew. The only exception was the Belvedere Nursery School, operating in a commercial zone. (Michael had produced affidavits from city officials stating they were aware that St. Stephen's planned to open a parochial school.)

In coming to their decision, the commissioners made the following statements:

Chairman George V. Banning: "I have looked at other cities and the views of professional planners. Allowing schools in a residential zone applies to cities which are developing. I think Belvedere is different. I don't believe the church building is adequate, nor is the access, nor the street layout. This would constitute spot zoning, which is poor planning practice."

Berton C. Jacobson: "Those desiring the school should have raised their objection when the ordinance was being drafted. There were numerous hearings then."

Leslie W. Graham: The identity of the church and school is not proved. If we allow this, we'll be opening a Pandora's box. The old Moffit mansion was at one time a school."

Frederick Jandrey: If the existing school facilities were not adequate and there were no space for additional facilities, I would change my mind. I believe both conditions are being met."

Thomas E. Scanton: "I can't recommend changing the ordinance in view of the history of the zoning ordinance. If the slate were clean and there were no ordinance I would think twice."

An overflow audience jammed the community hall for the hearing.

Redwood Gardens Plan Is Gaining In Novato

The tentative map of Redwood Gardens subdivision of six acres east of Railroad Avenue and north of Cerro Vista, was approved last night by the Novato City Planning Commission.

Gus Ravetz asked for the subdivision on six of 10 acres he originally planned for a mobile home park. He abandoned this plan after the State Division of Highways picked a freeway route which will take four of the 10 acres.

The change of name from San Jose Boulevard to Ignacio Boulevard for the new realigned portion of the street was recommended by the commission.

The commission continued until Sept. 11, a request by Harry Heifetz for consideration of the Scottsdale Master Plan for 80 acres between Highway 101 and South Novato Boulevard, south of Yukon Way; John Novak's request to abandon Prospect Road; and a hearing for a zone change for the Indian Valley Medical Group from limited agriculture to professional, for one acre on Hill Avenue adjacent to the Novato Hospital.

A request by Novak to rezone from single family to light industrial and general commercial, 45 acres between the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and Highway 101 north of Novato Creek, was continued to Sept. 23.

Tito, Khrushchev Pleased By Talks

Yugoslav and Soviet spokesmen described the meetings on Tito's offshore Brioni Island retreat as "going well" in a "good and friendly atmosphere."

They declined to disclose what Tito and Khrushchev were talking about. But it was learned reliably that the world Communist movement, including Peking's attack against them both, the general international situation, including disarmament, and bi-lateral relations, including closer economic relations, headed the agenda.

Witness Says Baron Failed To Cure With Egg Yolks

A jury of 10 women and two men heard the first witness yesterday in the grand theft trial of Andrew von Salza, the "egg yolk baron" of San Francisco..

The 57-year-old Estonian is under indictment by the San Francisco grand jury for allegedly bilking women with his youth-restoring fertilized egg yolk treatments.

Last year, von Salza talked of setting up a rejuvenation sanitarium in Marin's San Geronimo Valley.

First witness in the case before San Francisco Superior Court Judge Norman Elkington was Mrs. Bodee Cominoli, owner of the Pioneer Hotel in Woodside.

She told jurors that she paid the baron $7,500 for daily doses of yolks to treat her arthritis, which wasn't cured by the treatments.

Belvedere attorney Vincent Hallinan, defending von Salza, insisted Mrs. Cominoli did not ask for treatment of her arthritis but "to be rejuvenated in her sex life."

The trial was recessed till Thursday because of other trials on the court's calendar.

Spanish Workshop Goes On Television

Through the use of video tape, participants in a Spanish workshop in the Reed Union School District are having a chance to see themselves as others see them.

Television equipment has been brought to the class, the teachers are taped as they work with a group of pupils, and the results are shown to them for evaluation.

The workshop is now in the second week of the two-week session and is being offered by the district and the University of California Extension Division. Credit is being given by the university.

In 1961 the Reed District embarked on a program to teach Spanish to all grades, kindergarten through eight. During the past year classes in kindergarten and grades one and seven have been taught by foreign language specialists. Each year additional grades will be included, with the specialists moving on and the classroom teachers taking over the instruction.

The workshop is a part of the continuing education required to give the teachers proficiency in Spanish as well as teaching methods.

All regular classroom teachers in kindergarten and grade one were required to attend the workshop.

Co-directors are Dr. Karl E. Schevill, associate director of teacher education, University of California; Edward C. Pino, superintendent, Reed District, and Miss Flora Flores, foreign language teacher specialist, Reed District.

Also participating as resource personnel are Dr. Agnes M. Brady, professor of romance languages, University of Kansas; Dr. Donald Hatfield, head, education media laboratory, University of California; Miss Eva Nieto, Spanish teacher specialist, Reed District, and Mrs. Anais Mock, specialist, Berkeley Unified School District.

Jobless Teens 'Social Dynamite'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Acting Gov. Glenn M. Anderson has termed unemployed teen-age school dropouts "social dynamite," and urged communities to come up with their own programs to prevent them.

Anderson did not suggest any specific program, but said that "jobs for youth must be found, character-building programs need to be strengthened and expanded, and responsible authorities must be given additional broad training to deal with juvenile offenders."

He also called attention to a federal government report that indicated youth unemployment is now critical and will get worse before it gets better.

Novato School Librarian Is Faced With 'Demotion'

What amounts to a cut in pay and additional job duties for Novato Unified District librarian John Gallas means a "demotion rather than a promotion," district board members were told last night.

Attorney William Wolfson, representing Gallas, said that under the old salary schedule Gallas "actually made more money."

The loss, Wolfson said, amounted to $181 between what Gallas would be making if left on the old salary schedule and what he will be making under the new schedule.

However, Gallas's main complaint, Wolfson said, was that the job description called for a longer work day and work year than specified in the contract that he has been offered.

Gallas loses his independence and is "no longer free to use his best judgment" if he remains responsible to the director of curriculum, rather than the board. Wolfson protested "the clerical work" that Gallas has to perform in his assigned duty to process textbooks.

The board took the matter under advisement, indicating it might make a ruling at its Sept. 10 meeting.

The Novato Unified School District board also:

1. Filed a letter from Marilyn J. Smith claiming an illegal diversion of funds in the awarding of a contract at the board's June 18 meeting to pave the high school grounds. The county council's office has ruled that the fund transfer made by the district was legal.
2. Voted not to enter into an agreement with the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum because of its "financial situation."
3. Voted to increase base salaries of teachers by $120 as a modification to the budget which has already been adopted.
4. Approved a contract with the county for special education of handicapped children and a request to borrow up to $250,000 from the county as a "precautionary" measure.
5. Approved an application for construction of the Hill School for $392,447.77 and soil testing at the school.
6. Approved the same civil defense procedure for this school year as was in effect last school year.
7. Approved a change in the parking lot entrance at the high school that will cost between $300 and $400.
8. Voted to ask the following persons to serve on a health advisory council: Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer; Dr. Sidney Kerston, dentist; Dr. Frederich J. Newirth, physician, Dr. Leo A. Wagner, internist, Dr. Richard W. Walker, pediatrician; Paul Mobley, assistant superintendent; Margaret Feldstein, nurse; Robert Wisgerhof, high school superintendent; and the health chairman of the parent-teacher assn.

The theft of the oil from a rack outside the station was discovered this morning by John F. Kernan, owner, who placed the value of the oil at $17.49. The theft occurred between midnight and 7 a.m., Kernan said.

School Equalization Tax Is Due County

A school equalization tax will again be levied by the state against Marin County and this year it will be higher. The tax will be 15.5 compared with 8.9 cents last year, according to notification by the State Board of Equalization to county Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

Reason for this is that Marin's assessed property valuation has been judged by state agents, who conducted a sampling, to be 11 per cent below the average of all counties and only 20.8 per cent of market value whereas this year's state average is 23.1 per cent.

Thirty-six other counties are likewise below the state average and will be charged an equalization tax varying with their deviation.

But the sampling showed Marin County within "the area of toleration" so far as county taxes are concerned. No countywide increase in valuations is being ordered as happened in 1933 and again in 1955.

Assessor Bert W. Broemmel explained the valuation lag by the fact that Marin is a fast-growing county, likewise that his staff is insufficient to conduct reappraisals of the whole county every year. A school equalization tax in some degree has been charged in Marin every year since Broemmel became assessor in 1959. But he has never run so far below the market prices indicated by state sampling as to have a countywide revaluation ordered.

"On the whole this means a break for the taxpayer," said Mitchell today. "The fact that Broemmel is indicated as being under the average of other counties means that though taxpayers pay this special school levy, they don't pay higher in certain other categories where the top limit is exacted according to the valuation."

Mitchell said some Marin taxpayers will pay more school tax than before, some less, according to how other factors in their school tax complete levy work out. He will announce total tax rates for the code areas Thursday. Full analysis for incorporated as well as unincorporated areas may not be possible unless several lagging cities announce their rates tomorrow.

Mitchell said this has no bearing on the county's $2.25½-cent rate. Nothing will be done by the supervisors concerning the school equalization levy which will simply make up a shortage of $508,674 in state apportionment to Marin County school districts. The state divides its allocations according to a complex formula including number of pupils and value of property.

The state reasons that if a county's property valuation level is below the average of all counties, the county which is below should make up whatever percentage it is running below—in Marin's case, the difference between what is yielded by 20.8 per cent of market values and the 23.1 per cent state average. Otherwise it is felt that the low-valuation counties would be drawing unfair advantage from the state.

Other Bay Area counties include Alameda and San Francisco, both with 21.7 per cent; San Mateo, 21.8 per cent; Sonoma 23.2 per cent; Contra Costa 23.4 per cent and Santa Clara 24.7 per cent. Thus school equalization taxes will be charged against all but Sonoma, Contra Costa and Santa Clara, but Marin gets the highest charge as running the most below the state average.

Broemmel pointed out that despite the below-average showing, total Marin assessed valuation has risen 14 per cent over the last fiscal year. Yet this raise still leaves Marin 11 per cent under the state average, according to the findings of state samplers working in all counties.

Both Mitchell and Broemmel point out that the state sampling must be a somewhat inaccurate process, sound in theory of giving some check against the work of county assessors but naturally not equivalent to a complete appraisal.

Rice was first successfully raised in North America about 1680.

Parents Cited For Neglect Of Children

John Wesley Duran, 45, and his wife, Claire Olive Duran, 34, of 23 Lauren Avenue, were cited last night to the juvenile department for neglect of their children, according to Novato police.

The complaint against the Durans was made by a neighbor, Harvey Edward Teague of 13 Lauren Avenue, police said.

Complaints against the Durans were that they left their 13-year-old boy in charge of the other children, that the 5-month-old baby was left in a crib in the garage, that the parents would leave the children home, not returning until the early morning hours and that the children were outside until after midnight, Novato police reported.

Mrs. Duran told police officers that she left their son, John, 13, in charge of the other children, Helen, 14, Clyde, 11, Dolars, 6, and Susan, five months, while she spent the day yesterday with Lindan, 5, who had a tonsilectomy at Novato Hospital.

Ex-German Aide's Leg Is Amputated

STUTTGART, Germany (UPI) — Dr. Theodor Heuss, West Germany's first president, had had his left leg amputated at St. Catherine's Hospital today.

The retired 79-year-old leader withstood the operation satisfactorily, the hospital said.

Heuss suffered a blood clot in his leg this spring. The amputation was necessary because of gangrene, the hospital said.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

College Of Marin At Last To Have Alumni Group

"College Of Marin Alumni Ought To Form Association" read the I-J editorial headline. Well, we certainly got results.

But sometimes it takes a while. The headline above appeared in our issue of May 11, 1961. The alumni association is to be formed at a dinner and dance at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael the night of Saturday, Sept. 14. Even Rome wasn't built in a day.

Chairman of the organizing committee is W. W. Van Winkle, class of '53. He has a pretty respectably long list of some 2,000 names of former students but since this isn't a complete one we suggest that anyone qualifying, and not notified, send in his $5 dinner-dance-reservation check to the office of the Dean of Students without being asked.

As we pointed out nearly two and a half years ago, the College of Marin has an immense but largely unworked resource in the form of its alumni. The school has done well by them and they know it.

Fine records have been made by students of this junior college when they have transferred to four-year colleges and universities. Their loyalty can be utilized to the full only through the instrument of such an alumni organization as is at last under way.

The college is not receiving full values in moral support and all-round boosting until it has a living, breathing alumni association.

So we and all other friends of the College of Marin may hail this development as worthy, constructive and overdue.

George Has No Vote—He Just Counts 'Em

A fine thing! Our county auditor-controller has become so infatuated with that headless computer-monster called George that he evidently feels prepared to wipe out the whole human race on George's behalf.

In an alibi for a computer error not even by George (who has made 'em) but by a distant relative down Los Angeles way, Mike Mitchell said that after all it was due to a human error in what this headless horror had been fed in the way of data.

"Any time there are human beings, this thing could happen," quote Mitchell.

We have some news for Mike. Any time there aren't any human beings Mike isn't going to get elected to succeed himself.

And that might not be the worst of it.

Feverfew—An Oldtime Herb Remedy

The small, white, daisy-like flowers of the Feverfew plant are blooming now in Marin. There are two main varieties and both grow here and volunteer in our gardens.

A hundred years ago the delicate leaves of this plant were widely used as a herb medicine. According to Dr. Gunn's "New Domestic Advisor or Home Book of Medicine," published in 1860, Feverfew was very useful in many illnesses. Among the uses, as its name would indicate, was the reduction of fever.

It was also considered valuable as a diuretic and as a sweating agent, as well as a treatment for certain female disorders.

We don't use it for anything except flower arranging at our house, but we like it because it is dainty and attractive and grows without effort on our part.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Diem Must Halt Oppression Of Buddhists, Or Else

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge carried tough "instructions" to strife-torn South Viet Nam—despite official denials.

In effect, he will tell President Ngo Dinh Diem that unless the turbulent wrangling with the Buddhists is promptly ended, it will be publicly "disavowed" by the U.S.

The clear inference of this blunt warning is that Washington is prepared to officially reprimand Diem.

Such a crackdown would almost certainly have far-reaching internal impact in South Viet Nam. It could touch off an upheaval that might mean the end of the long-embattled Diem regime.

THESE STERN "instructions" were personally given by the President to Lodge before he departed for Saigon.

The President expressed sharp impatience with Diem's "disruptive" handling of the thorny Buddhist problem, particularly the "provocative" comments of Madame Ngo Dinh Nhu, his outspoken sister-in-law.

"This trouble with the Buddhists is wholly unnecessary," the President said. "There is no real justification for it. It's as disruptive as it is incomprehensible. Genuine progress was being made in the costly struggle against the Communists. Now that's being seriously jeopardized by this needless internal dissension.

"WE HAVE vital strategic interests at stake in South Viet Nam. We are in direct military confrontation with Red China. We cannot afford to lose this struggle. It has already cost us the lives of more than 100 of our servicemen, and in excess of 2-billion-dollars in military and economic aid. Too much is involved to fritter it away in a senseless wrangle with Buddhists.

"Diem and the close relatives around him apparently fail to understand that. The most important thing you can do in Saigon is to make that emphatically clear to him. I know it will be an extremely difficult and trying job, and you've got your work cut out for you."

"I'll do my best," said Lodge quietly.

INNER COUNCIL VIEWS—The elimination of Diem has long been covertly favored by close White House advisers.

They would like to see him replaced by a young general "with democratic ideas."

Just how this change would be brought about is left dangling. It is strenuously denied the U.S. is either encouraging or engineering a coup. But there can be no doubt the "right kind of coup" would be welcomed by the Kennedy administration with open arms.

The current backstage contention is that the Diem regime no longer can hope to win the support of the bulk of the South Vietnamese, and without that the costly and protracted conflict against the Communists can't be won.

For that reason, it's argued, "new, younger, less dogmatic and more modern leadership is essential."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Spanking Not A Panacea

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Ian McDougall takes vigorous exception to a letter I wrote attempting to minimize the necessity for physically punishing children. In what he believes is a more realistic and effective approach to child rearing, he would seem to advocate a regimen of material reward and physical punishment.

The reward and punishment approach is subject to interpretation. A beating might be the supreme penalty in one home; in another it might be a spanking, a mild slap, simple banishment to a room, or merely the raising of a voice. Likewise rewards vary from a simple pat on the back, to a stomach full of ice cream, to gifts of expensive toys.

Since there are also degrees of parental leadership, which range from setting limits based on common sense to total dictatorship, perhaps the conforming teenagers described by Mr. McDougall as an example that children love being led have been controlled to the point where being led has become a comfortable habit.

Naturally it is the right of the individual parent to determine which system of reward and punishment he chooses to adopt, and to what degree he will exercise authority. But for the sake of the children involved, it remains that physical punishment is not a panacea to unacceptable behavior, that it can have very negative effects, and that millions of children have been and are being raised most successfully and happily without it.

I think it strange, to say the least, that Mr. McDougall should dot his beliefs with some rather rash and puzzling presumptions about what I understand and do not understand about my own children.

OUR 'COMMUTERNAUTS'

Training Them Is Rigorous Ordeal

By HAL BOYLE

EASTHAMPTON, N.Y. — The other day Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, on the floor of the Senate, claimed we were spending billions of dollars sending a man to the moon, but not a nickel on getting a man from Stamford, Conn., to New York City in a railroad car.

What Sen. Ribicoff was unaware of at the time of his speech is that the government is concerned about the railroad commuter problem and they even have a school to train qualified commuters.

THE COMMUTERNAUT School is located underground at Grand Central Station. We were the first newspaperman permitted to see the training program.

One of the reasons for the secrecy is that there have been many failures in the inner space program and, while scientists are learning many things about getting a man from Stamford to New York City and bringing him back alive the same evening, there are still serious bugs to be worked out.

The first thing we noticed at the school was a large capsule the size of a commuter railroad car.

We were told that commuternauts are placed in the capsule for periods of two hours without air conditioning at 90-degree temperatures as the capsule rocks from side to side, simulating movement of a real train.

IF THE commuternauts can withstand the terrific pressures of this test, they then go on to an advanced program which involves their standing up and reading a newspaper while the capsule is in motion.

If they pass this test, they then can go into the winter program, which consists of sitting in a baggage car capsule in sub-freezing weather for four hours.

Prof. Haven Hartford, who is in charge of the program, told us, "We have had some disappointments, but we believe if Congress gives us the money we can get a man from Stamford to New York and back again by 1972."

"What are some of the difficulties involved?" we asked him.

"We haven't solved the problem of jerky stops, which cause tremendous pressures to the body. Then there is the extreme fatigue induced by the ancient rail beds. Also the cost of a ticket from Stamford to New York must be taken into consideration.

"Solving these, we still have psychological problems. They also suffer from weightlessness and complete despair."

"WHAT DO you feed them?"

"We are experimenting with an instant dry martini which comes in powdered form. All they have to do is add gin."

"I know you've been asked this question before, sir, but why are you spending so much money and time to land a man on New York City?"

Prof. Haven Hartford looked us straight in the eye and replied, "Because it's there."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A man who had made a great fortune in the Alaskan gold rush was asked how he had been so successful when so many others had returned empty-handed. The old prospector smiled and replied, "I never told anybody before, but I'll tell you. I just kept digging holes."

At a gay reunion of World War II veterans, the conversation got around to cartoons that had made the nation laugh a bit during the grim days before the tide turned in America's favor at Guadalcanal.

Favorites: Two goats chewing up top-secret reports at the Pentagon, with one grunting happily, "Best darn propaganda I ever ate!"; a general's hatchet-faced wife collaring him at the door of his home to snarl, "You're not going to go inspecting barracks until you tidy up the mess in your own room!"; the G.I. having a tooth yanked at the dispensary, gasping, "Ouch—Sir!"; and an admiral jumping up from his chair with a shriek of anguish while his aide whispers to a J.G. "I think the admiral's found that Japanese carrier that was missing from his chart."

The wife of a distinguished author claimed that she could no longer stand his clomping around the house day after day. "I married him," she explained, "for better or for worse—NOT for lunch."

Candid observation by John O'Reilly on the occasion of his first tour of the Museum of Natural History:

"I admit this is a wonderful world
But I'd prefer a place more liberally girled."

Lost Cat Shows Up With 7 Kits, Only It's Quite Another Cat

LAST WEEK this column carried the story of a lost cat belonging to the three children of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson of 1563 Buchanan Street, Novato. I always like to report happy endings to such stories, and this one has it.

A cat fitting the description had adopted a family in the same neighborhood. The cat, after adopting the family, went outside and, one by one, brought in six kittens. So when the column came out about the missing cat, the people thought they would get rid of seven boarders in one swoop. So they called the Pattersons.

They were told that the Pattersons' cat had been returned home. It was located at the Humane Society, where it was sent by nearby neighbors.

And the other family still has the seven cats.

A GRASS FIRE burned about an acre last week at the Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato. The fire was blamed on a carelessly thrown cigarette, probably heaved by a golfer.

During the fire, some golfers were on the nearby green, putting as if nothing were happening. They did not even have the common human decency to help the firemen drag the hoses to put out the fire which one of their kind seemingly started!

THE STORY of the apple tree in bloom in Novato in last Wednesday's Independent-Journal brought out other reports of spring flowers blooming out of season in the Novato area.

It must be a freak year for several things.

WHEN the Novato City Council was discussing use of the city's car at an adjourned meeting last Thursday night, the employee taking the cars home at night was being questioned.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget defended the action by pointing out the number of night meetings he had to attend and still put in a full day's work at the city hall.

"I practically live here now," he explained. "All I lack is a cot."

WE HAVE this story second hand from the usual reliable sources, and it sounds logical enough to be true.

Someone, presumably just moved to the area from the northwest, where the bounties of the sea are free for the taking, went to the beach. The tide was right and the clams were plentiful, so he helped himself.

Back home in Novato, a delicious clam feed was enjoyed and many comments were made on how good the clams were and how good the California clam digging was.

One listener asked the number of clams and was told about seven dozen.

Did the digger know he had to have a license to dig clams in California and that there is a limit, also that clams are now out of season and some were undersized? That could total a good stiff fine. And the listener was a former member of the Fish and Game Department.

Someone was glad that the evidence was already eaten!

A BIG SHIFT

California Education Changes Its Course

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Public education in California takes a big step when the school doors open next month—but there may be some differences of opinion as to what direction.

Beginning this year, for the first time in a couple of decades, history and geography will be taught separately in the fifth and eighth grades. The two separate courses will replace the course commonly known as social studies.

This radical change back to the way it used to be when Johnny and Joan's parents or grandparents were in school is brought about by action of the state board of education in adopting separate textbooks for the two courses. As schools are required to use the state adopted textbooks, the two separate books will require a separation of the courses.

THE METAMORPHOSIS will be complete this year in all fifth grade classes but will take another year to accomplish completely in the eighth, due to a shortage of texts. The geography books in the eighth grade will be only supplementary this year, one book for each four students. However, at the beginning of the 1964 school year they will be on the basis of one for each student.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

College Of Marin At Last To Have Alumni Group

"College Of Marin Alumni Ought To Form Association" read the I-J editorial headline. Well, we certainly got results.

But sometimes it takes a while. The headline above appeared in our issue of May 11, 1961. The alumni association is to be formed at a dinner and dance at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael the night of Saturday, Sept. 14. Even Rome wasn't built in a day.

Chairman of the organizing committee is W. W. Van Winkle, class of '53. He has a pretty respectably long list of some 2,000 names of former students but since this isn't a complete one we suggest that anyone qualifying, and not notified, send in his $5 dinner-dance-reservation check to the office of the Dean of Students without being asked.

As we pointed out nearly two and a half years ago, the College of Marin has an immense but largely unworked resource in the form of its alumni. The school has done well by them and they know it.

Fine records have been made by students of this junior college when they have transferred to four-year colleges and universities. Their loyalty can be utilized to the full only through the instrument of such an alumni organization as is at last under way.

The college is not receiving full values in moral support and all-round boosting until it has a living, breathing alumni association.

So we and all other friends of the College of Marin may hail this development as worthy, constructive and overdue.

George Has No Vote—He Just Counts 'Em

A fine thing! Our county auditor-controller has become so infatuated with that headless computer-monster called George that he evidently feels prepared to wipe out the whole human race on George's behalf.

In an alibi for a computer error not even by George (who has made 'em) but by a distant relative down Los Angeles way, Mike Mitchell said that after all it was due to a human error in what this headless horror had been fed in the way of data.

"Any time there are human beings, this thing could happen," quote Mitchell.

We have some news for Mike. Any time there aren't any human beings Mike isn't going to get elected to succeed himself.

And that might not be the worst of it.

Feverfew—An Oldtime Herb Remedy

The small, white, daisy-like flowers of the Feverfew plant are blooming now in Marin. There are two main varieties and both grow here and volunteer in our gardens.

A hundred years ago the delicate leaves of this plant were widely used as a herb medicine. According to Dr. Gunn's "New Domestic Advisor or Home Book of Medicine," published in 1860, Feverfew was very useful in many illnesses. Among the uses, as its name would indicate, was the reduction of fever.

It was also considered valuable as a diuretic and as a sweating agent, as well as a treatment for certain female disorders.

We don't use it for anything except flower arranging at our house, but we like it because it is dainty and attractive and grows without effort on our part.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Diem Must Halt Oppression Of Buddhists, Or Else

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge carried tough "instructions" to strife-torn South Viet Nam—despite official denials.

In effect, he will tell President Ngo Dinh Diem that unless the turbulent wrangling with the Buddhists is promptly ended, it will be publicly "disavowed" by the U.S.

The clear inference of this blunt warning is that Washington is prepared to officially reprimand Diem.

Such a crackdown would almost certainly have far-reaching internal impact in South Viet Nam. It could touch off an upheaval that might mean the end of the long-embattled Diem regime.

THESE STERN "instructions" were personally given by the President to Lodge before he departed for Saigon.

The President expressed sharp impatience with Diem's "disruptive" handling of the thorny Buddhist problem, particularly the "provocative" comments of Madame Ngo Dinh Nhu, his outspoken sister-in-law.

"This trouble with the Buddhists is wholly unnecessary," the President said. "There is no real justification for it. It's as disruptive as it is incomprehensible. Genuine progress was being made in the costly struggle against the Communists. Now that's being seriously jeopardized by this needless internal dissension.

"WE HAVE vital strategic interests at stake in South Viet Nam. We are in direct military confrontation with Red China. We cannot afford to lose this struggle. It has already cost us the lives of more than 100 of our servicemen, and in excess of 2-billion-dollars in military and economic aid. Too much is involved to fritter it away in a senseless wrangle with Buddhists.

"Diem and the close relatives around him apparently fail to understand that. The most important thing you can do in Saigon is to make that emphatically clear to him. I know it will be an extremely difficult and trying job, and you've got your work cut out for you."

"I'll do my best," said Lodge quietly.

INNER COUNCIL VIEWS —The elimination of Diem has long been covertly favored by close White House advisers.

Just how this change would be brought about is left dangling. It is strenuously denied the U.S. is either encouraging or engineering a coup. But there can be no doubt the "right kind of coup" would be welcomed by the Kennedy administration with open arms.

The current backstage contention is that the Diem regime no longer can hope to win the support of the bulk of the South Vietnamese, and without that the costly and protracted conflict against the Communists can't be won.

For that reason, it's argued, "new, younger, less dogmatic and more modern leadership is essential."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Spanking Not A Panacea

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Ian McDougall takes vigorous exception to a letter I wrote attempting to minimize the necessity for physically punishing children. In what he believes is a more realistic and effective approach to child rearing, he would seem to advocate a regimen of material reward and physical punishment.

The reward and punishment approach is subject to interpretation. A beating might be the supreme penalty in one home; in another it might be a spanking, a mild slap, simple banishment to a room, or merely the raising of a voice. Likewise rewards vary from a simple pat on the back, to a stomach full of ice cream, to gifts of expensive toys.

Since there are also degrees of parental leadership, which range from setting limits based on common sense to total dictatorship, perhaps the conforming teenagers described by Mr. McDougall as an example that children love being led have been controlled to the point where being led has become a comfortable habit.

Naturally it is the right of the individual parent to determine which system of reward and punishment he chooses to adopt, and to what degree he will exercise authority. But for the sake of the children involved, it remains that physical punishment is not a panacea to unacceptable behavior, that it can have very negative effects, and that millions of children have been and are being raised most successfully and happily without it.

I think it strange, to say the least, that Mr. McDougall should dot his beliefs with some rather rash and puzzling presumptions about what I understand and do not understand about my own children.

OUR 'COMMUTERNAUTS'

Training Them Is Rigorous Ordeal

By HAL BOYLE

EASTHAMPTON, N.Y. — The other day Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, on the floor of the Senate, claimed we were spending billions of dollars sending a man to the moon, but not a nickel on getting a man from Stamford, Conn., to New York City in a railroad car.

What Sen. Ribicoff was unaware of at the time of his speech is that the government is concerned about the railroad commuter problem and they even have a school to train qualified commuters.

THE COMMUTERNAUT School is located underground at Grand Central Station. We were the first newspaperman permitted to see the training program.

One of the reasons for the secrecy is that there have been many failures in the inner space program and, while scientists are learning many things about getting a man from Stamford to New York City and bringing him back alive the same evening, there are still serious bugs to be worked out.

The first thing we noticed at the school was a large capsule the size of a commuter railroad car.

We were told that commuternauts are placed in the capsule for periods of two hours without air conditioning at 90-degree temperatures as the capsule rocks from side to side, simulating movement of a real train.

IF THE commuternauts can withstand the terrific pressures of this test, they then go on to an advanced program which involves their standing up and reading a newspaper while the capsule is in motion.

If they pass this test, they then can go into the winter program, which consists of sitting in a baggage car capsule in sub-freezing weather for four hours.

Prof. Haven Hartford, who is in charge of the program, told us, "We have had some disappointments, but we believe if Congress gives us the money we can get a man from Stamford to New York and back again by 1972."

"What are some of the difficulties involved?" we asked him.

"We haven't solved the problem of jerky stops, which cause tremendous pressures to the body. Then there is the extreme fatigue induced by the ancient rail beds. Also the cost of a ticket from Stamford to New York must be taken into consideration.

"Solving these, we still have psychological problems. They also suffer from weightlessness and complete despair."

"WHAT DO you feed them?"

"We are experimenting with an instant dry martini which comes in powdered form. All they have to do is add gin."

"I know you've been asked this question before, sir, but why are you spending so much money and time to land a man on New York City?"

Prof. Haven Hartford looked us straight in the eye and replied, "Because it's there."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A man who had made a great fortune in the Alaskan gold rush was asked how he had been so successful when so many others had returned empty-handed. The old prospector smiled and replied, "I never told anybody before, but I'll tell you. I just kept digging holes."

At a gay reunion of World War II veterans, the conversation got around to cartoons that had made the nation laugh a bit during the grim days before the tide turned in America's favor at Guadalcanal.

Favorites: Two goats chewing up top-secret reports at the Pentagon, with one grunting happily, "Best darn propaganda I ever ate!"; a general's hatchet-faced wife collaring him at the door of his home to snarl, "You're not going to go inspecting barracks until you tidy up the mess in your own room!"; the G.I. having a tooth yanked at the dispensary, gasping, "Ouch—Sir!"; and an admiral jumping up from his chair with a shriek of anguish while his aide whispers to a J.G. "I think the admiral's found that Japanese carrier that was missing from his chart."

The wife of a distinguished author claimed that she could no longer stand his clomping around the house day after day. "I married him," she explained, "for better or for worse—NOT for lunch."

Candid observation by John O'Reilly on the occasion of his first tour of the Museum of Natural History:

"I admit this is a wonderful world
But I'd prefer a place more liberally girled."

Lost Cat Shows Up With 7 Kits, Only It's Quite Another Cat

LAST WEEK this column carried the story of a lost cat belonging to the three children of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson of 1563 Buchanan Street, Novato. I always like to report happy endings to such stories, and this one has it.

A cat fitting the description had adopted a family in the same neighborhood. The cat, after adopting the family, went outside and, one by one, brought in six kittens. So when the column came out about the missing cat, the people thought they would get rid of seven boarders in one swoop. So they called the Pattersons.

They were told that the Pattersons' cat had been returned home. It was located at the Humane Society, where it was sent by nearby neighbors.

And the other family still has the seven cats.

A GRASS FIRE burned about an acre last week at the Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato. The fire was blamed on a carelessly thrown cigarette, probably heaved by a golfer.

During the fire, some golfers were on the nearby green, putting as if nothing were happening. They did not even have the common human decency to help the firemen drag the hoses to put out the fire which one of their kind seemingly started!

THE STORY of the apple tree in bloom in Novato in last Wednesday's Independent-Journal brought out other reports of spring flowers blooming out of season in the Novato area.

It must be a freak year for several things.

WHEN the Novato City Council was discussing use of the city's car at an adjourned meeting last Thursday night, the employee taking the cars home at night was being questioned.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget defended the action by pointing out the number of night meetings he had to attend and still put in a full day's work at the city hall.

"I practically live here now," he explained. "All I lack is a cot."

WE HAVE this story second hand from the usual reliable sources, and it sounds logical enough to be true.

Someone, presumably just moved to the area from the northwest, where the bounties of the sea are free for the taking, went to the beach. The tide was right and the clams were plentiful, so he helped himself.

Back home in Novato, a delicious clam feed was enjoyed and many comments were made on how good the clams were and how good the California clam digging was.

One listener asked the number of clams and was told about seven dozen.

Did the digger know he had to have a license to dig clams in California and that there is a limit, also that clams are now out of season and some were undersized? That could total a good stiff fine. And the listener was a former member of the Fish and Game Department.

Someone was glad that the evidence was already eaten!

A BIG SHIFT

California Education Changes Its Course

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Public education in California takes a big step when the school doors open next month —but there may be some differences of opinion as to what direction.

Beginning this year, for the first time in a couple of decades, history and geography will be taught separately in the fifth and eighth grades. The two separate courses will replace the course commonly known as social studies.

This radical change back to the way it used to be when Johnny and Joan's parents or grandparents were in school is brought about by action of the state board of education in adopting separate textbooks for the two courses. As schools are required to use the state adopted textbooks, the two separate books will require a separation of the courses.

THE METAMORPHOSIS will be complete this year in all fifth grade classes but will take another year to accomplish completely in the eighth, due to a shortage of texts. The geography books in the eighth grade will be only supplementary this year, one book for each four students. However, at the beginning of the 1964 school year they will be on the basis of one for each student.

The change back to the separation of social studies courses into geography and history actually was ordered in June of 1961 and it has taken until now to put it into effect. The actual books which will be used in the courses were adopted officially by the board last year in January.

Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, has advocated separation of history and geography courses but the board's action actually took place before Rafferty was elected.

Residents Hit Danger Corner In Sausalito

Residents at the corner of Alexander and Edwards avenues have joined the Sausalito Citizens Council in a plea to have the curve, or at least the signs at the intersection, improved.

Actually, the residents have been buttonholing councilmen and city officials for some time, but have only succeeded so far in having a few more signs put up.

Since June 8, one person has been killed, four seriously injured and three cars wrecked on the curve. Last Tuesday representatives of the Citizens Council appeared before the City Council to ask for action.

Yesterday Russell S. Reagan, who says he is tired of phoning for an ambulance, sent a telegram to each member of the city council, also asking for more signs and, perhaps, yellow blinking lights.

The council already has appointed two councilmen to study the problem, and has asked for information from city public works director Norman Wohlschlaeger.

Larkspur City Rate On Tap

How much money to raise by property taxes and the amount of the fiscal 1964 city tax rate will be decided by the Larkspur city council at an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in city hall.

City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said Aug. 8 when the council passed the $408,000 budget, carrying a $14,000 deficit, the tax rate probably would be $2.08 per $100 of assessed valuation, up 14 cents over this year.

Whether a number of other items of unfinished business will be taken up Thursday night was not determined.

Sanford Faces Cardinals Tonight

Independent-Journal Sports

14 Tuesday, Aug. 27, 1963

San Francisco's struggling Giants, far closer to the pitfall of fourth place than their target of first, try to at least regain a share of second tonight —at the expense of St. Louis.

The Cardinals took the runner-up spot away from the Giants yesterday with a 6-3 victory in the opener of a three-game series.

Jack Sanford, 12-12, who hasn't pitched a complete game since July 28, goes tonight against Cardinal Curt Simmons, 11-6. Billy O'Dell, 11-6, is tomorrow's San Francisco nominee against Bob Gibson, 14-7.

Manager Alvin Dark went with his ace, Juan Marichal, and lost yesterday as the 19-game winner faded in the eighth and ninth innings.

The Cardinals disagreed among themselves as to whether or not Marichal lost his effectiveness in the late going —but there was no disputing the rain of hits that chased him.

Marichal had escaped four threats in the first six innings. He yielded an unearned run in the seventh but in the eighth seemed well in command with a 2-1 lead and four outs to go.

Then Charlie James slapped a single through shortstop and George Altman slammed a home run that bounced off the top of the right-center field fence and into the bleachers.

The Giants, who had scored two unearned runs in the sixth off Ernie Broglio, tied the score in the eighth on two singles off Ken Mackenzie and Felipe Alou's safety off Ron Taylor.

Marichal started his downfall with one out in the ninth when he walked pinch-hitter Carl Sawatski. Curt Flood singled, Dick Groat drove home the eventual winning run, an infield out scored another, Ken Boyer's single knocked in a third and a hit by James chased Marichal.

Willie Mays was about the only bright spot for the Giants offensively. He collected two hits in four trips and raised his batting average for August to .419.

GOOD GRIP ON THIRD—Giant centerfielder Willie Mays went from first to third safely in sixth inning yesterday on a single by catcher Ed Bailey. Sequence shows him sliding under the attempted tag by St. Louis third sacker Ken Boyer. (AP Wirephoto)

Giants Put Hart On Disabled List

Rookie infielder Jim Ray Hart, who has been plagued by injuries in his brief major league career, will not play any more this season for the San Francisco Giants.

The Giants yesterday placed him on the disabled list and received permission from the league to recall infielder Charles (Cap) Peterson from their Tacoma club.

Hart, who hit well over .300 at Tacoma, came up to the Giants in mid-season. In his first day of action, he was hit by a pitched ball and suffered a fractured shoulder.

He returned two weeks ago and was hit in the head by a pitch from Curt Simmons in St. Louis and suffered a slight concussion. Doctors advised that, though nothing seriously was wrong, Hart should rest for the remainder of this season.

Peterson currently is hitting .258 at Tacoma.

Bus Trip To Giant, Dodger Game Sept. 7

Anyone interested in joining a bus group that will travel to the Giant-Dodger game at Candlestick Park Sept. 7, leaving the Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae at 11:30 a.m., should contact Peter Gottheiner of 75 Corte Comoda as soon as possible.

Gottheiner said the trip was originally planned for members of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn. only, but few have applied so the trip has been opened to all interested.

Scanlon In Non-Title Go Tonight

SACRAMENTO & — Eddie Perkins steps into the ring for the first time since winning the junior welterweight crown in June when he meets Bobby Scanlon tonight in a no-title 10-rounder.

Perkins said he planned to weigh about 142 pounds, two over the junior welterweight limit. The contract calls for the fighters to scale anywhere from 141 to 144 pounds.

The bout previously was set for July 30 but the California Athletic Commission ordered it postponed, stating that Scanlon did not have sufficient time to get into shape.

Scanlon, 27, of Sacramento, has had three fights this year, winning one and losing two—all by decisions.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Dodgers In Batting Slump As Redlegs Post 3-1 Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wanted: Man to join first-rate firm. Short hours. Good salary. Bonus in October if successful. Only requirement — must have bat with base hits. Call collect, Walt Alston, Los Angeles Dodgers. HURRY.

There's no doubt that's the Dodgers' big need.

Jim O'Toole again emphasized the fact last night, holding the National League leaders to a mere five hits as the Cincinnati Reds survived a two-men-on-the-same-base situation and posted a 3-1 victory.

It was the Dodgers fourth loss in the last five games, and trimmed their lead to 5½ games over second-place St. Louis. Los Angeles now has managed to score only four runs in the last 35 innings and collected just 36 hits in five games.

The only Dodger regular hitting over .300 is Tommy Davis, the defending batting champion who is stroking away at a .328 clip. No Dodger is among the leaders in home runs or runs batted in and collectively the team is hitting a meek .250.

The Reds pulled a page from the Dodgers' book and wound up with two men on second base in the sixth inning after Vada Pinson singled and Frank Robinson walked. Pinson was picked off, and in the rundown, both runners stood staring at each other on second. Robinson was ruled out.

The Cardinals took the runnerup spot by beating San Francisco 6-3, dropping the Giants to third, 6½ back, and preventing Juan Marichal from posting his 20th victory. Milwaukee whipped Houston 11-7 in the only other game scheduled.

In the only American League action, second-place Minnesota remained 11½ games behind the New York Yankees by splitting a twi-night doubleheader with Washington. The Twins won 5-2 on consecutive seventh inning homers by Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison before the Senators took the nightcap 7-3 as Dick Phillips drove in four runs.

O'Toole, 16-11, had lost eight of his last 10 decisions, but got the only runs he needed when Gordy Coleman tagged Don Drysdale, 16-15, for a two-run homer in the fourth inning. The Dodgers scored in the bottom half on a double by Willie Davis and a single by Tommy Davis, but that was it. The Reds' final run crossed in the eighth when Tommy Harper raced home from first base on a single by Pinson.

Ed Mathews, pinch hitter Don Dillard and Hank Aaron homered for the Braves while John Bateman hit an inside-the-park homer for the Colts. Dillard's shot in the fifth tied the score 6-6, then the Braves moved ahead to stay on Gene Oliver's sacrifice fly in the sixth inning.

Palmer Goes Over $100,000 Win Mark

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—The $4,600 Arnold Palmer won for his second-place finish in the American Golf Classic Sunday pushed his winnings past the $100,000 mark for the year.

Jack Nicklaus, who won $2,200, remained in second place, more than $18,000 behind Palmer, official PGA standings showed today. Palmer has won $101,555 and Nicklaus $83,465.

Julius Boros is in third place, followed by Tony Lema and Gary Player, in that order.

Sohner Cops S.R. Softball Contest, 3-1

Lou Perazzo pitched a two-hitter and retired the last 19 batters in order as Sohner Tree Service trimmed North Bay Flag, 3-1, in the "A" Division of the San Rafael Men's Softball League last night at Albert Park.

Old Mill Tavern defeated Villa Lucchesi, 5-3, in the "B" League opener.

North Bay scored its only run in the first inning when Duane Irving walked, moved to second on Jim Shaw's single and scored on another hit by Merlin Olsen.

Perazzo then proceeded to mow down the Flagmen, striking out seven en route to his third league win against no losses.

Sohner tied the score in the second on Dan George's triple and added the winning runs in the third on an error and hits by Earl Beyer and Milt Hain.

The game was played in only 55 minutes.

Cal's Epstein Quits Football

BERKELEY (UPI)—First string California fullback Mike Epstein has quit the gridiron for the lure of the baseball diamond.

The 225-pound junior yesterday confirmed that he does not want to jeopardize a baseball career by incurring a football injury. Eptsein hit .330 for the Bear varsity last year.

Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and Baltimore Orioles reportedly have been wooing the first baseman-outfielder, whose home is in Los Angeles.

Cal's Epstein Quits Football

BERKELEY (UPI)—First string California fullback Mike Epstein has quit the gridiron for the lure of the baseball diamond.

The 225-pound junior yesterday confirmed that he does not want to jeopardize a baseball career by incurring a football injury. Eptsein hit .330 for the Bear varsity last year.

Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and Baltimore Orioles reportedly have been wooing the first baseman-outfielder, whose home is in Los Angeles.

DIPSEA MEN ARE OFF AND RUNNING

The first to leave Lytton Square in Mill Valley on their way to Stinson Beach were these runners with 15-minute handicaps in Sunday's 53rd historic Dipsea Race. Runners with identifiable numbers are James Forsyth (5), Gail Hermann (6), Anthony Stratta (13), Michael Patterson (10), Raymond Canton (3) and Richard Chourre (4). Winner of the race was Alan Beardall, a three-minute handicapper who ran the 6.3 mile course in 49:07.

BACK IN 1905 . . .

Dipsea's First Champion

By RALPH CHATOIAN

One of the most interested spectators at Sunday's 53rd Dipsea Race was a bearded gentleman by the name of John Hassard.

And he was probably the most interesting.

Hassard, now 76, was the winner of the first two Dipsea races ever held, back in 1905 and 1906. He ran the race the first year in one hour and 12 minutes and came back the following year to win again, this time with a clocking of 49 minutes and 55 seconds.

Of course, curious as to the reason for the wide gap between the times, we found out it was because the course was shortened to 6.8 miles after the first race which was longer.

"It must have been about nine miles that first year," Hassard reflected. "In those years we used to finish the race in the sand, which made it harder than today's race," he said. (Runners in the Dipsea of the present times finish the race on a paved street in the middle of the town of Stinson Beach.)

Hassard estimated that 125 or 130 runners competed in those first two races. "But there were only about a dozen people to watch the race at the finish line because the highway over Mount Tamalpais was not in. It was all a dirt road then, and you had to walk across to see the runners."

Then Hassard posed for some more pictures with the newest winner of the Dipsea, Alan Beardall, who won Sunday's event in 49:07 scratch and 46:07 handicap. It was a field day for the amateur shutter-bugs.

ANOTHER old-timer on hand for the race was Mrs. Laura Skovgaard, who ran in the race back in 1922 during the time there were two Dipsea races, one for the men and the other for the women. In that year Mrs. Skovgaard — then Laura Blanchflower—finished the race in 20th place out of a field of 200 gals.

THE YOUNGEST runner in Sunday's race was half of a father-son combination from Allentown, Pa., Jan Whitton, only 12, and his father, Hank, started and finished the gruelling race to the delight of Jan's mother.

Since minimum age for the race is 17, Jan and his dad competed "unofficially." The family is vacationing at the home of Jan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Simonson of Tiburon.

Incidentally, the boy finished the race with a time of 61:59, a little ahead of his father.

IF THE Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce is planning to sponsor the race again next year, the members had better work on a system to tabulate the final results quicker than was the case Sunday.

Although the race was over shortly after 11 a.m., the spectators had to wait for almost two and one-half hours before the results were officially announced. Quite a few grumblings were heard in the crowd and many left before the trophies were presented. The Jaycees did a good job in handling the event, otherwise, but the time delay will have to be improved upon next year.

Sausalito Race Won By Sonata

Doug O'Hair's Sonata today is resting in the laurels of a winner after taking first place in the Sausalito Yacht Club's annual YRA Regatta Sunday on San Francisco Bay.

Sonata, with Bruce Easom of San Rafael at the controls, finished eight minutes ahead of the next boat, Isobar.

The waters outside the heads were, undoubtedly, just great for fishing, but for the yachts in the Cruising Club divisions that had the channel buoys for the windward marks of the course, it was a sea of utter frustration. With a breeze that sank to a mere whisper and combined with a besetting flood tide, many of the boats had not achieved the weather marks.

And, for a greater part of the participants, their hour of frustration became acute in the last couple hundred yards of the race. For the first few boats to finish, the breeze was sufficient. But then it died, leaving many wallowing but a short distance from the committee boat.

Those fortunate to work into early leads carried the breeze with them, once the weather mark had been achieved, and made it home without trouble.

In Cruising Club "A" the situation was even more lopsided. Jim Michael's Baruna completed the course in six hours 30 minutes, yet it took John Tinkler's Orion, the second boat, seven hours and 15 minutes to cross the finish line.

Thurman Stars, But M.V. Loses

The Mill Valley Merchants lost a close game to the Napa Chiefs Sunday in Mill Valley, 4-3, as pitcher Fred Thurman put on a one-man show in a losing cause for Mill Valley.

Thurman lost a no-hitter after seven and two-thirds innings when the Chiefs scored three runs to win with two down in the eighth inning. Thurman suffered the defeat, although striking out 14 batters and getting three of the seven Mill Valley safeties.

Only one of the four runs was earned off Thurman as the hurler has now allowed only three earned runs in his last four starts on the mound.

MACKEY ON WAIVERS

A Lot Of Action In 49er Player Market

The San Francisco 49er roster stood at 44 men today after end Dee Mackey was placed on waivers, holdout guard Ted Connolly was placed on the inactive reserve list, and end Clyde Conner was ignored by other NFL clubs and fullback Glenn Shaw was picked up.

All this player activity meant that one more cut must be made today to get within the player league limit for this time of year.

Shaw, 6-foot-2 and 230 pounds, was with the Bears, Vikings and Rams. It was Los Angeles who cut him.

The injured Conner had been put on waivers but it was thought the Prospectors would pull him back if he was claimed by any other club. Now he has been placed on the injured reserve list.

Connolly said he still won't retire. He said it's simply that "I won't play for Red Hickey or under the terms offered by the 49ers. With me, it isn't as much the salary as it is a personality conflict." Connolly has said he wants to be traded.

The 49er injury report was heartening after the 24-7 loss to Cleveland. Leo Nomellini, Mike Lind and Mike Magac are all expected to be ready for the Dallas game Friday night.

Kermit Alexander, Eddie Dove and Leon Donahue were bruised against the Browns, but all were expected to be patched up by Friday. That leaves only end Monty Stickles on the injured list.

Coach Hickey and his coaches watched films of Sunday's debacle and did manage to find kind words for the efforts of defensive linemen Charley Krueger and Dan Colchico.

Hickey said one of the five interceptions Sunday was caused by Mackey's heading in the wrong direction. The other four occurred because his quarterbacks had an off-day.

Two Marin Fishermen Catch Prize Salmon

Two more Marin anglers were added to the list of salmon winners last week in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club contest currently going on.

Marvin Morgan of 405 D Street, San Rafael, caught a 37-pound, 8-ounce beauty near Buoy No. 1 on Aug. 16, and Charles Alfsnes of 57 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, pulled in a 35-pound salmon Aug. 17 in Duxbury.

Mill Valley Teacher Returns From Hawaii

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Maemae is a school in Honolulu where playgrounds are all grass, the pupils go barefoot and never carry their lunch.

Maemae (pronounced m y my) is located high in the lush Nuuana Valley near the Pali and overlooking the ocean. School starts at 8:15 a.m. and lets out at 2:15 p.m. because of the subtropical climate.

There is but one recess because it is felt that is enough. Pupils all get lunches at the school cafeteria.

Exchange teacher Madeleine Carner, who taught one of the five first grades at Maemae during the past school year, had in her class of 34, one Negro, one pure Hawaiian, one Caucasian and 31 pupils of mixed Oriental races.

Sept. 10 when Mrs. Carner returns to Old Mill School in Mill Valley to each first grade she will have 32 pupils, all Caucasians.

At Maemae first graders use either the Sister Caroline or McGee phonic reader system. There is no formalized arithmetic program in first grade.

Old Mill has a staff of 12 and 450 pupils while Maemae has 32 on its staff and 1,200 pupils. Of the 32 teachers, five last year were Caucasians.

The program at Maemae is worked out through the department of public instruction serving all Honolulu. In Mill Valley programming is done by the Mill Valley School District.

Mrs. Carner, the first exchange teacher to go from Mill Valley School District to another district, returned recently with her three daughters, Sherryl, 17; Carolyn, 11 and Connie, 9.

Marianne Takafuji, who was second grade teacher at Maemae School, exchanged with Mrs. Carner, taking the Old Mill first grade class.

In a similar exchange, Mrs. Helen Bruner, who taught fourth grade at Park School, taught third grade at Nuuanu School in Honolulu while Lynette Ching of Honolulu taught third grade at Park.

"It is a give and take kind of situation," Mrs. Carner said. "You take your experience with you and gain so much by exposure to other cultures and ways of doing things . . . exchange of cultures is almost a missionary thing with me," she continued. "I think this is so vital, the understanding of other peoples."

The exchange was initiated by the teachers, Mrs. Carner said, and approved by the two school bodies. The Mill Valley School District paid Mrs. Carner's salary. All other expenses, such as travel, was borne by Mrs. Carner.

"When I tell people here on the mainland about the mixed classes in Hawaii they often react with amazement," Mrs. Carner said. "I knew I would be exposed to this and I wanted to learn how it was accomplished and why we can't accomplish it in more places. The youngsters got along beautifully."

Mrs. Carner, who had hoped to return to Hawaii since the summer of 1958 when she studied oceanography for several weeks at the University of Hawaii, said Carolyn learned Mandarin Chinese and to play ukelele, Connie learned the hula, Sherry learned to prepare a luau and she, herself, how to surfboard.

Carolyn and Connie were the only Caucasians in their respective classes at their schools. Connie's teacher was Mrs. Lani Ching, the mother of Lynette Ching.

As the Carners became acquainted, the teacher said, parents of Mrs. Carner's pupils invited the family to their homes where they ate Hawaiian Laulaus, Japanese Sukiyaki and Chinese and Korean dishes. They learned and still use many Hawiian words such as Puka for hole, Pupu for hors d'oeuvres and Pau for finish.

Baker Chorale Auditions Set In September

Auditions for new members of the Winifred Baker Chorale will be held on Sept. 4 and 5, at 7:45 p.m., according to director Winifred Baker. They will be held in Angelico Hall, Dominican College, San Rafael.

"The chorale is non-denominational and open to all men and women sincerely interested in choral singing," Mrs. Baker explained. "There is a limited number of openings in all voices. Auditions will be short, and anyone interested may come on either night.

Scheduled this year in January for the group is the California premier of Menotti's new cantata, "The Death of the Bishop of Brindisi," as well as other concerts later in the year.

Regular weekly rehearsals for the Chorale will begin Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 7:45 p.m. in Angelico Hall.

Hospital Reports Due At Board Session

Reports from the Marin General Hospital medical staff, hospital volunteers and the district operations committee will be heard by the Marin Hospital District board at 8 p.m. today in the hospital lounge.

Reports will be made on dontions from the in-service volunteers and the ballect acquacade. The board may name a director to succeed Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, whose resignation was accepted last month.

In a similar exchange, Mrs. Helen Bruner, who taught fourth grade at Park School, taught third grade at Nuuanu School in Honolulu while Lynette Ching of Honolulu taught third grade at Park.

"It is a give and take kind of situation," Mrs. Carner said. "You take your experience with you and gain so much by exposure to other cultures and ways of doing things . . . exchange of cultures is almost a missionary thing with me," she continued. "I think this is so vital, the understanding of other peoples."

The exchange was initiated by the teachers, Mrs. Carner said, and approved by the two school bodies. The Mill Valley School District paid Mrs. Carner's salary. All other expenses, such as travel, was borne by Mrs. Carner.

"When I tell people here on the mainland about the mixed classes in Hawaii they often react with amazement," Mrs. Carner said. "I knew I would be exposed to this and I wanted to learn how it was accomplished and why we can't accomplish it in more places. The youngsters got along beautifully."

Mrs. Carner, who had hoped to return to Hawaii since the summer of 1958 when she studied oceanography for several weeks at the University of Hawaii, said Carolyn learned Mandarin Chinese and to play ukelele, Connie learned the hula, Sherry learned to prepare a luau and she, herself, how to surfboard.

Carolyn and Connie were the only Caucasians in their respective classes at their schools. Connie's teacher was Mrs. Lani Ching, the mother of Lynette Ching.

As the Carners became acquainted, the teacher said, parents of Mrs. Carner's pupils invited the family to their homes where they ate Hawaiian Laulaus, Japanese Sukiyaki and Chinese and Korean dishes. They learned and still use many Hawiian words such as Puka for hole, Pupu for hors d'oeuvres and Pau for finish.

weekend activities, skiing. In the right picture (right) she was photographed with another student, Pat Williamson. Walking, hiking and attending Fasching Balls were among the other leisure time activities she enjoyed.

Marin Soprano Builds Opera Career

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mill Valley's young dramatic soprano, Jane Marsh, who celebrated her twenty-first birthday on June 25, has the extraordinary distinction of having turned down contracts with three opera companies.

The first two were in Austria, one with the Vienna State Opera and the other with the Vienna Volksopera, and the third for the 1963 season of the San Francisco Opera Company.

Why?

Because she realizes that her voice is mature beyond her years and experience, thus proving that she also has wisdom beyond her years.

"IT WAS A GREAT temptation," she said, referring to the San Francisco Opera offer, "but I do not feel I'm ready to perform."

When she was spending her third year of college abroad under Oberlin's arrangements with the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, the young singer said she had observed that in Europe there is so much opportunity for singers to perform that they often do so without realizing they are not ready.

JANE, WHO is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earle Marsh of Mill Valley, has made a meteoric rise on the musical horizon that is perhaps more of a surprise to her and her parents than anyone else.

She started singing lessons almost by chance with Mme. Bella Resek in Mill Valley five years ago when she was 16 years old, and this year she was one of the six national winners in the Metropolitan Opera Auditions in New York City.

THIS SUMMER she was enrolled in the seven-week Merola Opera Program of the San Francisco Opera. In its final program this month in Saratoga Jane sang the leading roles of Leonora in Verdi's "La Forza del Destino" and that of Sister Mathilde in Poulenc's "The Dialogues of the Carmelites."

One reviewer raved: "Truly she was magnificent, both in voice and dramatically. The audience shook up the nearby grapevines with their 'Bravos!'"

Jane will be heard this fall in taped recordings of her performances in these roles—plus that of Lisa in Tchaikovsky's "The Queen of Spades"—on TV station KQED's "Invitation to the Opera" series on the operas of the coming San Francisco Opera season.

But Jane herself expects to be in New York studying under a language and diction coach, a vocal teacher and a repertoire coach affiliated with the Metropolitan. As a result of placing in the Metropolitan auditions she was offered a full scholarship at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, but she will

Her family background was of the right kind to nurture the seed of musical and dramatic talent, for both of her parents are known for their activities in dramatics, and her father, a gynecologist, had some musical training and experience.

Dr. Marsh has directed for the Mill Valley Masquers, the Sausalito Little Theater, the Cove Players of Tiburon, the Gate Theater in Sausalito and the Actors' Workshop of San Francisco, sometimes acting also in productions. In 1960 he co-produced a Mill Valley Light Opera production of "Die Fledermaus." Mrs. Marsh also acted in some of the little theater productions.

MUSIC NEVER interested Jane seriously until she became fascinated with musical comedy—still a keen interest—and she had attended during her sophomore and junior years in high school the Elizabeth Holloway School of Theater in San Francisco.

"I thought taking singing lessons would be kind of fun in terms of dramatics," she said. "I decided I might as well try everything."

It was at this point in 1959 that she went to Mme. Resek, who immediately recognized the potentialities of her voice and encouraged her, and in the same year that she started vocal lessons Jane won a Marin Music Chest scholarship.

UP TO THIS time Jane's real interests had been animals—especially horses—swimming and modeling. In her junior year in high school she had taken a course in modeling at the House of Charm in San Francisco and did some free-lance modeling for eyes and hands. Periodically she still gets some offers to model.

In high school, where she was about a B average student, she was also interested in science and thought something of becoming a clinical psychologist.

After graduation from high school in 1959 she attended the College of Marin one year with the idea of going into clinical psychology.

WINNING THE MARIN Music Chest Scholarship helped to turn her thoughts to music instead.

"I selected Oberlin College because I had no music study or training other than the vocal lessons, and I thought since Oberlin is a small school, I might get more individual attention. I was accepted there as a sophomore but had to take freshman music courses.

"At Oberlin I was very much impressed by the pressure. I can't stress that enough. All of us were warned that in our home towns we were probably thought of as marvelous."

"AUSTRIA IS like a fairyland," she said with enthusiasm. "I went skiing on weekends, did a lot of hiking and attended the Fasching Balls.

"On coming back to this country you realize that though your technical training might not be as good as at home, your musicianship is doubled and ability to interpret tripled because you have lived in such a natural background.

"People don't realize what pressure they are under in this country," she continued, "even in the little things they do in their own homes. People in Europe are relaxed and have no mental breakdowns, except perhaps those resulting from the war.

"It is best to be trained in this country, then if possible go to Europe and build a name and come back. Italy is an exception because there are so many singers there. Germany is the place for opportunities."

Jane returned to this country for her senior year at Oberlin and was graduated last June with a bachelor of music degree. It was during her senior year that her study and training began to pay off in awards.

First there were several faculty awards and the chance to perform on campus. Then she won the district and regional Metropolitan Opera auditions, competing in the Great Lakes Regional contest as one of 4,000 entrants.

About this time she also entered the auditions for the Chicago Opera Company and won the rating of "highest recognition."

LAST FEBRUARY as a regional winner she was among the 22 semi-finalists in the national Metropolitan auditions in New York, was one of the 10 finalists and subsequently placed among the six top winners.

As a result, the Metropolitan has offered to further her vocal training in the expectation that she will audition again. It is with the purpose of beginning this training that Jane will be leaving for New York the middle of September.

Her most recent achievement was being the winner of the first Corona Anderson scholarship offered by the Symphony Guild of Marin in auditions held in June. She expects to use the $500 scholarship to help pay for her training in New York.

ON AUG. 30 Jane will be a soloist at a memorial service for Gaetano Merola, founder of the San Francisco Opera. It is to be held in the San Francisco Opera House in the late morning and early afternoon with especially invited guests only attending.

She will sing the famous aria "Pace Pace, Mio Dio" from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino," which will be included in the coming opera season as a memorial to Merola.

Coat Window Sills

Woman's work is never done, but there are little ways to make it easier. One of these ways is to coat all your window sills with wax. This protects the paint and you can wipe off dirt and rain spots in no time.

Color Test Corduroy

It's a good idea to apply a simple color test when purchasing dark-colored corduroy. To test for color permanence, take a white handkerchief and rub the surface of the fabric briskly. If the color comes off, you can expect it to rub off on other clothing. And, if the color rubs off when dry, the problem will be worse when the material is being laundered. Loss of color in corduroy can be traced to faulty fabrics rather than faulty laundering techniques.

Fall Is Popular Time For Redecorating Your Home

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Fall is home decorating time. Major organizations of interior design fields conduct busy home clinics, forums, shows throughout the country to teach women the way of home fashion.

There are more than 25,000 practicing interior designers in the United States. It is estimated that more than 27 billion dollars is spent annually on home furnishings. One billion of it is spent by interior designers in behalf of their clients.

Their range of professional activities vary from providing slipcovers in a home to doing complete homes, ships, airplanes, offices, and even representing clients at auctions.

Some designers are consulted on matters of table settings, art acquisitions, party arrangements, and in the purchase of linens and garden furniture. Some even serve as fashion consultants.

One reason for the rise of the interior designer in recent years may be public awareness that the average home designer does not charge a fee, but relies on commissions made by buying furnishings at wholesale prices and charging the client retail prices.

Some interior designers will furnish floor plan, color scheme and ideas for as little as $25. The consultation often results in a saving of more than that amount, points out one interior designer.

Sometimes there is disappointment in a designer's work.

"Anyone employing an interior designer should become thoroughly acquainted with his abilities. The qualifications of professionals can be checked," says Arturo Pini di San Miniato. He is newly elected president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

But no one need feel underprivileged if he can't afford to hire an interior designer. Trends and ideas in newspapers and magazines can be followed.

Many shows with room settings help neophytes in their selection of color schemes and furnishings.

LAST FEBRUARY as a regional winner she was among the 22 semi-finalists in the national Metropolitan auditions in New York, was one of the 10 finalists and subsequently placed among the six top winners.

As a result, the Metropolitan has offered to further her vocal training in the expectation that she will audition again. It is with the purpose of beginning this training that Jane will be leaving for New York the middle of September.

Her most recent achievement was being the winner of the first Corona Anderson scholarship offered by the Symphony Guild of Marin in auditions held in June. She expects to use the $500 scholarship to help pay for her training in New York.

ON AUG. 30 Jane will be a soloist at a memorial service for Gaetano Merola, founder of the San Francisco Opera. It is to be held in the San Francisco Opera House in the late morning and early afternoon with especially invited guests only attending.

She will sing the famous aria "Pace Pace, Mio Dio" from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino," which will be included in the coming opera season as a memorial to Merola.

Coat Window Sills

Woman's work is never done, but there are little ways to make it easier. One of these ways is to coat all your window sills with wax. This protects the paint and you can wipe off dirt and rain spots in no time.

Color Test Corduroy

It's a good idea to apply a simple color test when purchasing dark-colored corduroy. To test for color permanence, take a white handkerchief and rub the surface of the fabric briskly. If the color comes off, you can expect it to rub off on other clothing. And, if the color rubs off when dry, the problem will be worse when the material is being laundered. Loss of color in corduroy can be traced to faulty fabrics rather than faulty laundering techniques.

Fall Is Popular Time For Redecorating Your Home

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Fall is home decorating time. Major organizations of interior design fields conduct busy home clinics, forums, shows throughout the country to teach women the way of home fashion.

There are more than 25,000 practicing interior designers in the United States. It is estimated that more than 27 billion dollars is spent annually on home furnishings. One billion of it is spent by interior designers in behalf of their clients.

Their range of professional activities vary from providing slipcovers in a home to doing complete homes, ships, airplanes, offices, and even representing clients at auctions.

Some designers are consulted on matters of table settings, art acquisitions, party arrangements, and in the purchase of linens and garden furniture. Some even serve as fashion consultants.

One reason for the rise of the interior designer in recent years may be public awareness that the average home designer does not charge a fee, but relies on commissions made by buying furnishings at wholesale prices and charging the client retail prices.

Some interior designers will furnish floor plan, color scheme and ideas for as little as $25. The consultation often results in a saving of more than that amount, points out one interior designer.

Sometimes there is disappointment in a designer's work.

"Anyone employing an interior designer should become thoroughly acquainted with his abilities. The qualifications of professionals can be checked," says Arturo Pini di San Miniato. He is newly elected president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

But no one need feel underprivileged if he can't afford to hire an interior designer. Trends and ideas in newspapers and magazines can be followed.

Many shows with room settings help neophytes in their selection of color schemes and furnishings.

Women Involved In Capitol March

By JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Behind every man, they say, is a woman.

Men called tomorrow's march on Washington. But, says Dr. Anna Arnold Hedgeman, behind that march women are a real force.

"WOMEN USUALLY lead any crusade. They don't always get frontline notice, but they're there and their force is felt."

Dr. Hedgeman is one woman who's getting some of that front-line notice. She's the only woman on the nine-member administrative committee for the march. She also is coordinator of church participation in the march for the National Council of Churches.

These days you can find her, in one capacity or the other, addressing rallies—"My father taught me to speak," she says, "and it's the only thing in the world I'm vain about—appearing on radio and television discussion programs, holding press conferences, attending strategy meetings or working in her office at National Council of Churches headquarters.

SHE KEEPS going until long past midnight, is back at her desk by 8:30 a.m.

Through all the pressures of the times she moves calmly and without hurry.

She is endlessly patient, almost leisurely with anyone who drops by her office to pick up march literature or calls to ask how to get a train reservation to Washington. Occasionally from behind her crystal-rimmed glasses excitement glints and you sense that, although no one has ever been more intent of purpose, she is at the same time enjoying herself hugely.

"WOMEN — WHITE or Negro—have always carried the major responsibility for what happens. Women can understand what we're doing at this time because they suffer from the same prejudice. Some of them maybee just don't recognize it.

"Right along with Negroes, women are discriminated against just for being what they are. Certainly women ought to be very vigorous in support of minorities. I honestly think women are the most discriminated against of all the minorities. Yes, even more than Negroes, if that's possible."

She paused for appreciation of her mild heresy, then added with a smile: "I get it on both counts—woman and Negro."

Cornhuskers Planning Special Dance Saturday

The Cornhusker Square Dance Club of Larkspur will hold its fifth Saturday dance at McNear's Barn Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

Farewell Luncheon Honors Resident Of Corte Madera

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mrs. Stewart Tholen of Corte Madera was honored at a farewell luncheon given by Mrs. Richard Smith of Marinwood and Mrs. John D. Plawchan of Belvedere. The luncheon locale was the Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tholen, who have only resided in Corte Madera a year, will live in The Hague, in the Netherlands where he has been transferred by the Bechtel Corporation. Other guests at the luncheon were Mesdames Fred Perley, Richard Godwin, Don Womsley, Eugene Lordon, T. I. McKee, Harris B. Drake and Raymond Ponath.

A RECEPTION honoring an American Field Service exchange student, Hans Eike von Oppeln of Heilbrown, Germany was given last night at the Loch Lomond home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Tait. Eike, as the young student is called, will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. William W. Howe of San Rafael. Eike and the Howes' son, Bob, will be seniors at San Rafael High School, this year.

Assisting at the reception were two new co-chairmen of San Rafael Chapter, AFS, Mrs. Raymond Rogers and Mrs. Rodney Wagner. Other officers of the chapter are Mrs. Fred Tegler, finance chairman, Mrs. James McFarlane, students abroad section, and Mrs. Bert Corona, home selection. Miss Margaret Tierney will continue as faculty advisor, for the high school's international club which supports the AFS program. Among those at the reception were members of the club and AFS committee and their families and faculty members.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT P. KANTER of San Rafael sailed today on the Matsonia for a three-week vacation in Hawaii. They will headquarter in the Hawaiian Village in Honolulu. While Mr. and Mrs. Kantner are away her father, R. G. Eberhard of San Francisco, will stay in their home.

MRS. RAY SHAVER of San Rafael entertained members of the Leola Club at a picnic at her summer home in Cazadero. Her guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Redden, Thomas Kelly, Fred Cebalo, Mesdames Fleeta Triese, H. L. Anderson, Emerson Yates, H. L. Shadle, J. E. McGee, Henry Steinhauser, Della Gaskill, Herbert McKenney, William Hagner, Merle Orr, Carl Schusster, Walter Shawyer, Herbert Knopf, Thomas Stark, M. P. Chrisler, Charles Olson and Howard McCarthy (Susan Shaver).

CLAYTON AND HAZEL DREW have sold their Corte Madera Lagoon home and on October 1 will take possession of a new one at Leisure Town, the retirement settlement near Vacaville in Solano County. Mr. Drew has retired from a patent attorney practice in San Francisco, covering a period of 50 years and Mrs. Drew from her interests in Marin County with volunteer work and women's clubs for 40 years, being a vice president of the Corte Madera Women's Improvement Club at the time of retirement.

The important reason for the move is that Mr. and Mrs. Drew want to be near their son, Murray Drew, and wife and their son, Clayton Drew II who live in Sacramento.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ECKELHOFF (Amy Livingston) of Mill Valley have named their infant daughter, Gretchen. The baby was born at St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco. She is the sister of Lisa, 6, and Charles, 5. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eckelhoff of San Francisco and Mrs. Joan B. Livingston of Mill Valley.

DR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS RAMSEY of San Rafael stayed for several days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach.

Bridge Players Seldom Show True Character When Bidding Hands

There may be something in the view that at the bridge table wa show ourselves as we really are not.

Opening lead — ♡ 10

You won't find Walsh's opening bid in any of the books. This painfully honest stockbroker was trying to steal something from the opponents.

I wouldn't want to push this theory too far. My own response of three notrump on the North hand was perfectly honest, and this doesn't prove that I'm a crook away from the bridge table.

OPEN HEARTS

The opening bid had a strange effect on the play of the cards. West opened the 10 of hearts, dummy played low, and East thought things over carefully and likewise played low.

Thereupon Walsh took the queen of hearts and ran off the rest of the tricks with diamonds and clubs.

Four overtricks gave us a very handsome tournament score.

COUNTED POINTS

There's a point to this story (in more ways than one). East could see 12 points in his own hand and 10 in the dummy. Allowing South 16 points for the opening bid of one notrump, East felt sure that West had only 2 points at most.

East was sure that South had the ace of hearts. If this were so, East could not gain by playing the king of hearts at the first trick.

ONE FOR BOOKS

You won't find Walsh's opening bid in any of the books, but perhaps it belongs there. It's reasonably safe to "lie" about a couple of points if you have a solid minor suit as compensation.

Pitch this kind of curve about once a month and you'll keep the opponents worried without bothering your partner.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Bridge Players Seldom Show True Character When Bidding Hands

There may be something in the view that at the bridge table wa show ourselves as we really are not.

Opening lead — ♡ 10

You won't find Walsh's opening bid in any of the books. This painfully honest stockbroker was trying to steal something from the opponents.

I wouldn't want to push this theory too far. My own response of three notrump on the North hand was perfectly honest, and this doesn't prove that I'm a crook away from the bridge table.

OPEN HEARTS

The opening bid had a strange effect on the play of the cards. West opened the 10 of hearts, dummy played low, and East thought things over carefully and likewise played low.

Thereupon Walsh took the queen of hearts and ran off the rest of the tricks with diamonds and clubs.

Four overtricks gave us a very handsome tournament score.

COUNTED POINTS

There's a point to this story (in more ways than one). East could see 12 points in his own hand and 10 in the dummy. Allowing South 16 points for the opening bid of one notrump, East felt sure that West had only 2 points at most.

East was sure that South had the ace of hearts. If this were so, East could not gain by playing the king of hearts at the first trick.

ONE FOR BOOKS

You won't find Walsh's opening bid in any of the books, but perhaps it belongs there. It's reasonably safe to "lie" about a couple of points if you have a solid minor suit as compensation.

Pitch this kind of curve about once a month and you'll keep the opponents worried without bothering your partner.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

WITH A LITTLE PAINT
this home could be a palace! It already has the vaulted ceiling and the quality construction of a palace. The interior of the home just needs some sprucing up! And besides the 3 bedrms., 2 baths, and large modern kitchen, you could easily convert the 2 car garage into a huge family room! Nothing to do in the yard but water occasionally. It looks professionally landscaped, for the easiest of care. Because it needs some work, the price has been reduced to $33,800 . . . but you'll see for yourself that it's worth more.

WITH A LITTLE PAINT
this home could be a palace! It already has the vaulted ceiling and the quality construction of a palace. The interior of the home just needs some sprucing up! And besides the 3 bedrms., 2 baths, and large modern kitchen, you could easily convert the 2 car garage into a huge family room! Nothing to do in the yard but water occasionally. It looks professionally landscaped, for the easiest of care. Because it needs some work, the price has been reduced to $33,800 . . . but you'll see for yourself that it's worth more.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Small Pockets, Diverticulis, Form In Old Person's Lower Intestine

VAN DELLEN

If you are over 50 you probably have diverticula of the colon—small pockets protruding from the wall of the large intestine. You may have one to a thousand of these tiny sacs and never know it unless XV-ray is taken.

The saccules fill with the usual contents of the intestine and seldom make a fuss unless the opening becomes blocked or the pocket inflamed, leading to diverticulitis. The lesions are harmless; it is the complications that cause trouble.

NO ONE KNOWS why diverticula form. This may be part of the aging process, representing changes comparable to those involving the hair and skin. Obviously, the intestinal wall is weakened over the area into which they protude. Our "ad machine" can't think, of course; that's the job of the I-J's 8 advertising specialists. Type can be blown up, reduced, double-printed; illustrations can be pasted right into place —a hundred new advances are now available through electronics. Listed below are the advantages you can count on for your advertising.

Operator pushes a button to change type fonts—Bodoni, Caslon, whatever is needed. He "blows up" type by turning a knob.

Type is "set" on electronically punched tape—all sizes, all kinds. Electronic photography will bring it "alive."

Here's the type, on paper... being pasted up in an ad. Type has been enlarged or reduced photographically to fit exactly.

Here's what it means to you as an advertiser

—a better selection of type; clearer, sharper. No limitations of "point" sizes.

—fresh, new type, every letter, every line, every time—for better printing.

—double printing at no extra cost. (Type can be set on piece of merchandise, for instance.)

—special screen effects—no extra charge.

—actual size illustrations can be pasted right in ad (saving you cost of engravings which formerly had to be done).

—savings on engravings lowers your total advertising costs.

—we still can use mats, but can also reproduce direct from your illustrations, magazine photos, clips.

—faster advertising service; we paste up ads, "pull" proofs by special machine process—saves lock-up and mechanical time.

—we keep files of your art work for future use, saving you time.

Special note:

The electronic system frees you of the cost—and the need—to have engravings made in order to supply us with original artwork. (You can actually photograph merchandise, for example, and we can reproduce it, same size, without charge). All final printing, however, of all advertisements is made from highest-quality engravings.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

If you are over 50 you probably have diverticula of the colon—small pockets protruding from the wall of the large intestine. You may have one to a thousand of these tiny sacs and never know it unless XV-ray is taken.

The saccules fill with the usual contents of the intestine and seldom make a fuss unless the opening becomes blocked or the pocket inflamed, leading to diverticulitis. The lesions are harmless; it is the complications that cause trouble.

NO ONE KNOWS why diverticula form. This may be part of the aging process, representing changes comparable to those involving the hair and skin. Obviously, the intestinal wall is weakened over the area into which they protude. So many of these outpocketings arise in regions where blood vessels pierce the wall that the initial weakness may stem from this anatomical source.

Diverticula favor the last segment of the large intestine. When infection is present, the lower left abdomen usually becomes sore. Symptoms resembling appendicitis and the same complications ensue — peritonitis or abscess following rupture of one or more inflamed sacs. For this reason the condition represents a silent disease most of the time but with a potential for disabling consequences.

INFLAMMATION follows strain from constipation and congestion after the overuse of irritants, including alcohol. Many persons have a bout of abdominal pain subsequent to a drinking spree or the Christmas holidays. Regularity of the bowel habit and soft stools can be obtained by consuming bland foods and using mild laxatives such as milk of magnesia or stool softening products such as Colace or Doximate.

Bed rest and a limited liquid diet give relief when infection and abdominal pain are acute. An antibiotic or a sulfonamide usually is needed to control the invading bacteria. Recurring episodes may be disabling, especially when abscesses, peritonitis, or perforation occur. Now and then infection spreads to the bladder or the lesion undergoes malignant changes.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompaniese request.)

CATARACT ORIGINS

J. C. writes: Is cataract due to hardening of the arteries of the eyes?

REPLY

This is one possibility for senile cataracts. There are other types, including congenital and juvenile cataracts. Heredity must be considered as well as nutritional and inflammatory changes that affect the lens fibers. Degeneration of the lens substance also follows injury from trauma, radiation, lightning, electricity, and heat. Physicians have been unable to pin down a single cause for all these types.

DIET AND EXERCISE

R. T. writes: Are hormones helpful in maintaining a desirable weight after a hysterectomy?

REPLY

No. A normal diet and physical activity will help much more.

REPLY

Yes, but be sure and grunt —the deeper, the better.

LIBATION

G.S. writes: If a person takes an alcoholic drink after an abdominal operation, will be burn up the insides?

NUMBNESS OF SKIN

M. S. writes: What is meant by cutaneous paresthesia?

REPLY

Parasthesia means numbness and cutaneous refers to the skin. The condition is known as numbness, burning, or tingling of the skin.

The items are on display in the Sausalito police department until Sept 16, when the written bids must be submitted.

Oversized Sign To Be Discussed

A sign three times the legal size at Dolphin Marin Sales Co. at 2060 Redwood Highway will be discussed again at 8 p.m. today by the Larkspur Planning Commission.

Commissioners began discussing the sign, erected without a permit, on Aug. 13. The matter was continued after a sign company representative said it was put up because a sign about the same size, 240 square feet, had been erected by a previous occupant at the site.

The commission will consider several lot splits and may discuss zoning ordnance changes.

End To School

Airman Tom E. Nowell III, son of Tom E. Nowell Jr., of 507 Browning Street, Mill Valley, was graduated Aug. 1 from the Aviation Machinist's Mate Reciprocating School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

Blood Center Starts Program For Volunteers

A program to enlist 100 volunteer workers for the Marin Blood Center was announced today by Fred F. Enemark.

According to Enemark who is chairman of a recently formed Committee on Organization, "The serious and constant lack of sufficient blood donations to support the needs of Marin County hospitals has motivated the committee of five Marin County citizens to act."

Other members are Dr. John H. Manwaring representing the Marin Medical Society; Mrs. Enemark; Rufus Rhoades, chairman Marin Blood Center Volunteers, and Mrs. John Pinn III, co-chairman.

Plans include a reception to be held in late September at the Peacock Gap and Country Club to which 150 Marin County couples will be invited. The purpose of the affair, according to Enemark, will be to describe the Blood Center program and point out the urgent need for volunteers.

The Center, at 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, which has been operating for two years, is a service of the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank of the San Francisco Medical Society and the Marin Medical Society.

According to Enemark, in 22 of the past 24 months it has failed to meet its 400 donor-per-month quota which is based on the blood units needed to supply Marin County hospitals. "Marin County residents are using more blood than the Center can provide," he said.

"This is why we have organized this committee," Enemark continued. "The health and well-being of our population is an important goal. The assurance of an adequate supply of blood for use in surgery and other medical treatment is an essential community responsibility."

Duplex To Come Before Planners In Mill Valley

A request to build a duplex on a substandard lot at 20 Millwood Street, Mill Valley, will be heard when the Mill Valley planning commission meets at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Lloyd L. Seitzinger will also ask for a 10 instead of 15-foot front setback for the duplex on the 8,488 square foot lot, which is 50 feet wide. A 10,000 square foot lot with an 80 foot width is required for duplexes.

Commissioners will also consider rezoning Northridge property to a planned one family residential area and will consider granting a use permit to Nathan Erb to build an auto parts sales store at 475 Miller Avenue.

The council will also hear a report from the finance committee on the city's insurance program. Bids were received last Tuesday on insurance for the coming year.

Dunlap was a native of Missouri and Mrs. Dunlap was born in Kansas. After their marriage, they lived for a time in St. Mary's, Kansas, before coming to California. Pozzi will join a party of three men from Santa Rosa who make an annual hunting trip to that area.

"One man of the four man party could not go this year, and I was invited," Pozzi said.

The plans for the trip are to go by pickup truck to Vancouver, B.C. and then north to the Canadian part of the Alaskan Highway. Their destination is Fort St. Johns where they pick up a guide.

"I hope to get some good movies and possibly a trophy or two of caribou, moose, or bear for by new trophy room," he said.

Pozzi is adding a trophy room to his home at 1683 Novato Boulevard to house the trophies which he collected two years ago in Africa.

Oversized Sign To Be Discussed

A sign three times the legal size at Dolphin Marin Sales Co. at 2060 Redwood Highway will be discussed again at 8 p.m. today by the Larkspur Planning Commission.

Commissioners began discussing the sign, erected without a permit, on Aug. 13. The matter was continued after a sign company representative said it was put up because a sign about the same size, 240 square feet, had been erected by a previous occupant at the site.

The commission will consider several lot splits and may discuss zoning ordnance changes.

Sausalito Radio Equipment Sale

Radio equipment, including FM transmitters and receivers, remote control receivers and link transmitters, speakers and hand sets, is being offered for sale by the city of Sausalito.

The equipment is being offered for bid in one lot, said Charles A. Brown, city manager but bids for single items will also be accepted.

The items are on display in the Sausalito police department until Sept 16, when the written bids must be submitted.

End To School

Blood Center Starts Program For Volunteers

A program to enlist 100 volunteer workers for the Marin Blood Center was announced today by Fred F. Enemark.

According to Enemark who is chairman of a recently formed Committee on Organization, "The serious and constant lack of sufficient blood donations to support the needs of Marin County hospitals has motivated the committee of five Marin County citizens to act."

Other members are Dr. John H. Manwaring representing the Marin Medical Society; Mrs. Enemark; Rufus Rhoades, chairman Marin Blood Center Volunteers, and Mrs. John Pinn III, co-chairman.

Plans include a reception to be held in late September at the Peacock Gap and Country Club to which 150 Marin County couples will be invited. The purpose of the affair, according to Enemark, will be to describe the Blood Center program and point out the urgent need for volunteers.

The Center, at 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, which has been operating for two years, is a service of the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank of the San Francisco Medical Society and the Marin Medical Society.

According to Enemark, in 22 of the past 24 months it has failed to meet its 400 donor-per-month quota which is based on the blood units needed to supply Marin County hospitals. "Marin County residents are using more blood than the Center can provide," he said.

"This is why we have organized this committee," Enemark continued. "The health and well-being of our population is an important goal. The assurance of an adequate supply of blood for use in surgery and other medical treatment is an essential community responsibility."

Duplex To Come Before Planners In Mill Valley

A request to build a duplex on a substandard lot at 20 Millwood Street, Mill Valley, will be heard when the Mill Valley planning commission meets at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Lloyd L. Seitzinger will also ask for a 10 instead of 15-foot front setback for the duplex on the 8,488 square foot lot, which is 50 feet wide. A 10,000 square foot lot with an 80 foot width is required for duplexes.

Commissioners will also consider rezoning Northridge property to a planned one family residential area and will consider granting a use permit to Nathan Erb to build an auto parts sales store at 475 Miller Avenue.

Novato councilman Everett Pozzi will leave on Labor Day for a hunting trip to Northern British Columbia and the Yukon Territory.

Pozzi will join a party of three men from Santa Rosa who make an annual hunting trip to that area.

"One man of the four man party could not go this year, and I was invited," Pozzi said.

The plans for the trip are to go by pickup truck to Vancouver, B.C. and then north to the Canadian part of the Alaskan Highway. Their destination is Fort St. Johns where they pick up a guide.

"I hope to get some good movies and possibly a trophy or two of caribou, moose, or bear for by new trophy room," he said.
